NORMAN ROBINSON

The body of a local youth who died while realizing his greatest ambition — flying an Air Force Sabrejet — Thursday was enroute here for full military services and burial.

Norman Robinson, 21-year-old second lieutenant who lived with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cole Brown, 1842 Zwingley, died July 8 when his jet crashed while traveling around 500 miles per hour. His death came exactly one year after he received his wings.

He was flying a training mission and performing a "Split S" maneuver when his machine appeared to strike the ground in a high speed stall, according to Air Force officials.

A member of the 492nd Fighter-Bomber Squadron, he suffered the fatal mishap near St. Clement, France.

LT. ROBINSON was the son of Mrs. Margaret Robinson, who lives in Cleveland, O.

He was graduated from Attucks high school in 1951 and attended the New York Academy of Aeronautics a year before entering the Air Force in May, 1952.

Accepted into the service at Sampson Air Force Base, Geneva, N. Y., Robinson received his basic training at Chandler Air Force Base, Tucson, Ariz., and attended Cadet School at Williams Field, where he received his wings July 8, 1954.

He served in Germany before going to France.

Robinson was a member of Garfield Baptist Church here and was outstanding in the Music department at Attucks where he played trumpet.

The Patton Funeral Home will have charge of services.

Let 'Em Mix Now Say Ky. Parents

BURLINGTON, Ky.—Negro and white parents here want their school officials to know they have accepted the Supreme Court's anti-segregation law in good faith.

At a meeting Tuesday night most parents attending agreed segregation should end as quickly as possible when the matter was placed before them.

If the School Board acts accordingly, integration will become effective in September.

Mayor R. M. Hall said: "Personally I can't see any reason why the decision should be delayed—whether we like it or not."

The meeting brought together parents of the Walton-Verona district in Boone county where 11 colored children attend a segregated school.

Mrs. Grace L. Heard Was "Mother" To Many

MRS. GRACE HEARD

One of the city's finest examples of motherhood was exemplified in the adult life of Mrs. Grace L. Heard, an inspiring eulogy delivered at her funeral services Tuesday of last week declared.

Active and exhibiting her lofty down to the last 15 minutes of her busy life, Mrs. Heard died at her home, 901 W. 25th street July 9. She was 67 years old.

SERVICES were held for the mother of Andrew W. Ramsey, Recorder columnist and Attucks high school instructor, and six other children, at Second Christian Church July 12. Burial was in Crown Hill, and the Patton Funeral Home conducted.

A devout Christian, Mrs. Heard left a widow with eight young children when still a young woman, set out to give them each the best start in life, a college education and the background of home life in which the highest principles of ethics, morality and Christianity were rigidly practiced.

With only her iron determination, high resolve, clear vision

Zeigler Resigns YMCA Post

Veteran Senate YMCA Worker Forced To Quit

Hooson Zeigler, veteran staff member of the Senate Avenue YMCA, submitted his resignation, "by request" Wednesday, John J. James, executive secretary revealed.

His action climaxed an ouster move begun several months ago when it was charged before the Board of Management that Mr. Zeigler was "incompatible" with the new policy established by the leaders of the Metropolitan organization governing operation of the Negro branch.

It is understood that Zeigler, who has served for a number of years as membership secretary, was given the choice of resigning or being fired following approval of a recommendation by the Board of Management as a special meeting Friday last week that his service.

Hotel Employee Admits Killing Aging Actress

NEW YORK (CNS)—A much headlined murder—with an aging actress as the victim—was solved in twenty-four hours when porter Marion Gaillard confessed.

Gaillard—a 20-year-old Negro and married, told how he accidentally brushed against Adlyn Woodington, 58 and white, when she called him a "dirty" name.

Angry he followed her to her room at the Hotel Chesterfield where she repeated the epithets. It was then he killed her, according to the confession.

Miss Woodington—who had appeared on the stage in 45 states—was beaten, stabbed in the face and then strangled in her shabby 17th floor room. Police had first thought she had been raped. The autopsy ruled this out. Since nothing in the room was disturbed and the woman was of poor means, police were at a loss as to motive.

It was Gaillard's actions that led them to him. Hotel officials became suspicious when he reported he was ill and asked for the day.

Newcombe Wins 16th

Don Newcombe, Dodger's ace hurler, won his 16th game against only one defeat Wednesday evening with a brilliant two-hitter against Chicago. The score was 10-1 as Junior Gaillard batted in two runs with three hits and Roy Campanella batted in a run.

Staying Here Crowe Says

Ray Crowe, coach of Attucks' state champion basketball team, announced Tuesday that he is turning down an offer from Prairie View College which would pay him $7,250 a year as head basketball coach, and will remain here.

The state's No. 1 net mentor considered the job for two weeks and turned it down when he was given a position with the newly-formed Great American Life Insurance Co., headed by Charles Conwell.

Employed for the summer as a deputy clerk in County Clerk H. Dale Brown's office, Crowe quit the job this week and began training with the insurance company, selling policies and stock in the company.

He said the new job opportunity was the determining factor in my decision. It will supplement the $6,050 annual salary which he receives from Attucks for teaching, coaching basketball and assisting track coach Al Spurlock.

"That $7,250 Prairie View offered looked pretty good," Crowe told The Recorder.

"But this looks much better. Right now I'm making more."

LOOK AT TAVERN PATRON OWNER SHOT: Patrolman Alfred Finnell takes one last look before covering completely the body of Fred Ellis, who died Monday night after being shot by Tom

Charge Tavern Owner, Woman in 2 Slayings

By JIM CUMMINGS

A defenseless patron was cold-bloodedly shot to death by a much-arrested tavern owner, according to witnesses, Monday night, and a drunken Westsider was stabbed by his girlfriend as he slept last Saturday morning in another flareup of violence.

Tom Giroff, 55, who in 23 years as owner of Tom's Tavern, 1548 N. Senate, gained a reputation of being fast on the draw and indiscriminate in his choice of targets, was being held in jail without bond Thursday on murder charges in connection with his shooting of Fred Ellis, 52, 125 W. 2st. He was bound over to the Grand Jury Tuesday by Judge Patrick J. Barton, Municipal Court 3.

Roberta Coe, 37, 1439 Mill, charged with murder for her stabbing of Alton Turner, 44, 445 Rankin, was also held without bond. Her case was continued to July 25 by Judge Barton.

Giroff, who according to an authoritative source "has shot at least four people" at the rowdy tavern, claims he shot Ellis in self-defense after Ellis drew a knife on him.

The squat, bespectacled businessman said he ordered Ellis out of the tavern because Ellis had been drinking before he arrived there.

Robert Hall, 60-year-old landlord at 445 Rankin, found Turner's body on the floor of the room he rented there.

He said Roberta Coe had called his attention to the man's death when she came from the house carrying a bloody breadknife and told him, "You better call police. I done killed him."

Mrs. Coe, in a signed statement to police, said Turner got her to practice prostitution and took the money she made and gave it to other women.

She said she stabbed him during an argument over money.

"We went into the bedroom and started arguing about my money," she stated, "and I picked up the knife off the dresser and hit him with it, and he fell."

"I WISH SOME of his women had killed him ten or twelve years ago and I wouldn't have got messed up," she said.

Hall said Turner and Mrs. Coe had been out on a all-night drinking party and that Turner was "very drunk" when he came home to go to bed.

Mrs. Coe was with him, according to Hall, and the couple were arguing about money. Turner was supposed to go out and collect $15 as payment for a job, and Mrs. Coe wanted half of it.

After a time the couple left the house and walked to 419 Rankin, where Mrs. Coe stopped to talk to some people. Turner left her and went back home, Hall, who saw the incident from his front porch, stated.

"Turner went in and laid on the floor," Hall continued. "Roberta came back and demanded to see him."

"I heard her saying, 'Alton are you going to get me my money?'" and he didn't want Ellis starting any trouble.

He said Ellis cursed him and called him vile names as he ejected the patron from the place. Ellis pulled a knife after they were on the outside of the tavern, Giroff stated, and he shot him.

Congressman Powell "Fights It Out"

WASHINGTON—The segregation issue touched off a brief but lively fight between two Congressmen during a closed-door session of the House Education and Labor committee Wednesday afternoon.

Trading punches were Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, (Dem. N. Y.) and Rep. Cleveland Bailey (Dem. W. Va.) as colleagues thrashed about in an effort to separate the two belligerents.

The tempers of the congressmen reached the boiling stage when Powell is alleged to have shouted at Bailey, "You're a liar."

The fistcuffs materialized when the committee defeated 17-10 an amendment offered by Rep. Stuyvesant Wainwright (Rep. N. Y.) that would deny federal financial aid to states and local school districts practicing racial segregation.

Bedlam broke loose. It was reported, as Bailey leaped to his feet and made a dash for Powell when the latter shouted the uncompromising epithet at the West Virginian.

ONE CONGRESSMAN said Bailey, 69, six inches shorter than Powell, 46, a six footer and many pounds lighter, landed the first punch. Eight or 10 blows were quickly exchanged by each of the combatants, he said, ending with Powell sitting on the floor.

The flustered congressmen quickly cooled off their colleagues had stopped the fight, grasped each other's hand in the spirit of good sportsmanship, and resumed their seats side by side, the informer said.

"I'm sorry this happened," Powell is reported to have said to his adversary.

"Forget it. It never happened," Bailey told newsmen later.

Powell, also pastor of the Abyssinian Baptist Church of New York City, refused to confirm or deny the fracas but said:

"Cleveland Bailey and I smoke cigars together and are old friends. We always will be."

Lawyers, Beckwith Clash Over His Opposition to Kuykendall

A group of prominent attorneys, members of the Marion County Bar association this week challenged Attorney Frank Beckwith to state publicly his "veiled" objections to the appointment of Rufus Kuykendall, assistant city attorney, to the position of country director for the US Foreign Operations Commission serving in Liberia.

Beckwith's announcement that he opposed Attorney Kuykendall for the position was circulated in The Recorder last week.

Following is the statement of the local group the Legal Ethics committee of the bar association which is composed of Patrick Chavis, chairman, Willard B. Ransom and Thomas M. Crowder, attorneys:

"We are shocked at the position publicly taken by our colleague Frank Beckwith over the appointment of Rufus C. Kuykendall to a position of national responsibility.

"It is interesting because in our considered opinion, Mr. Kuykendall is a person of superior intellect, training background and experience. His contributions to the community and to the legal profession are outstanding and we

Court Gets First Mixed School Case

COLUMBIA, S. C.—The first case in the country involving school segregation was scheduled to go to court Friday, July 22 under the recent May 31 Supreme Court ruling.

A three-judge panel in Federal court here will hear arguments on what it should do to enforce the high court's directive that segregation in public schools be ended as soon as practicable.

The Summerton district in Charleston county are defendants in the case which was one of five in which the Supreme Court held in May 17, 1954 the segregated schools on the basis of race are unconstitutional.

Definitely, Summerton school authorities have declared they will close the public schools rather than submit to integration.

Enthusiasm Mounts As Newsies Picnic Nears

The Recorder, hundreds of its staff of news boys and girls and many underprivileged children as guests, are working and planning with rising enthusiasm toward the annual Recorder picnic.

In addition to the many recreational features and entertainment to be provided, the youngsters and their friends will meet the peerless Henry Armstrong, the only prize-fighter ever to hold three world boxing championships at the same time.

Armstrong, now a preacher, "fight for God" with all the zest and stamina he exhibited in the ring, will referee the amateur boxing matches to be staged as a picnic attraction.

The outing will be held again this year at the Boy Scout Camp Belzer, about 10 miles northeast of the city.

A fleet of modern busses will provide transportation to and from the camp.

THOM ERVIN, picnic director and Recorder circulation manager, has invited former world's heavy-weight boxing champion, "Jersey Joe" Walcott to attend as guest and is awaiting word from him.

Mr. Ervin is busy distributing "goody" tickets to entice the

Northwestern Paint Store Offers Quality, Service

Service that invariably results in customer satisfaction is the steadfast policy of the Northwestern Paint Store, 2734 Northwestern avenue.

The rapid expansion of the business within the six months it has been located at the present address is a deserved tribute to its enterprising owner, John M. Hannah, a highly respected member of this community.

The well stocked store handles the products of three nationally known manufacturers of quality paints, Super Kentone, Gliddens and Pittsburgh.

The line of paints carried includes enamels, varnishes and stains that have superior quality and durability for interior and exterior decoration.

Problems of decorative schemes are simplified through an improved matching system of making colors to suit individual tastes with more than 175 colors to choose from. Desired colors may be obtained in flat, rubber-base, semi-gloss or gloss finishes.

These finishes, marvels of modern scientific research, may be applied over wallpaper and in most cases are one-coat jobs easily washable.

THE STORE also is agency for Kool Vent awnings, storm and screen enclosures. The complete service includes rental of floor sanding and edging machines for home or office.

The wallpaper products are those of nationally advertised brands including the new ready-pasted coverings that the homeowner may "do it yourself" at substantial saving of money.

Mr. Hannah, proprietor of the Northwestern Paint Store, maintains an active interest in community affairs as member and officer of the trustee board of Alken Chapel AME Church; the alumni chapter of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity; officer of the Lotus club; trustee of the Federation of Associated Clubs, Inc., and officer of the Harry Daniels Post, American Legion.

minutes.
"It was cold-blooded murder," declared Abraham Rayford, 27, 981 Tremont, in an exclusive interview with The Recorder. Rayford, who has never frequented Tom's Tavern, saw the shooting and witnessed the incidents which led to the tragedy.

While driving west on 16th, just crossing Senate, Rayford said his attention was attracted to the tavern, which sits on the south-west corner of the busy intersection, by loud cursing.

Two men were cursing one another and one (Giroff) had a gun in his hand, Rayford said. He parked his car on the north side of 16th, a few feet from Senate, and got out to watch the proceedings.

After awhile, Rayford stated, Giroff put the gun in his pocket and went back inside the tavern. The other man (Ellis) started away and turned the corner onto 16th, heading west.

ANOTHER MAN (identified as Herbert Fearman) came out of the tavern and began talking with Ellis and attempting to lead him down the street.

Giroff came back out of the tavern, according to Rayford, and walked up to Ellis and Fearman. Ellis engaged Giroff in another profane argument as Giroff again held the revolver, this time in a position which indicated he was about to strike Ellis with it.

Ellis challenged Giroff, "If you take those glasses off and put that gun away, I'll punch you in the mouth," according to Rayford. Giroff placed his glasses on the sidewalk and put the gun in his hip pocket.

Fearman, who had been holding Ellis' arm throughout, clamped a tighter hold on the limb and pulled Ellis away. Giroff replaced his glasses, Rayford stated, and went up behind the two men and kicked at Ellis, pulling his gun at the same time.

GIROFF FIRED point-blank into Ellis' face as Ellis turned around, Rayford said.

"At no time did Ellis have a knife," Rayford stated.

Fearman, 42, 620 W. 31st, said he was sitting in a booth in the tavern with Mrs. Anna Roberts, Ellis' ex-common-law wife and waitress in the tavern when Ellis came in.

"I told Fred to get a glass and come to our table and drink some of my beer," Fearman said in a signed statement to police. "Tommy would not give him a glass and they got to arguing."

"Tommy came from behind the bar with a gun and ordered Fred out. He kicked Freddie out the door," Fearman stated.

Ellis and Giroff argued for awhile on the outside, according to Fearman, then Giroff returned to the tavern. He went outside again shortly afterwards.

Fearman said he went outside and took Ellis by the arm. "They were still arguing," Fearman said with reference to Ellis and Roberts. "I PULLED FREDDIE to get him to my car. That is when Tommy shot him," Fearman concluded.

Mrs. Roberts, who says she lived with Ellis 14 years before they separated a year ago and has worked at the tavern 16 years, stated that Giroff ushered Ellis to the door with his gun drawn and "pushed him out."

Deputy Coroner Dr. James Anderson, who pronounced Ellis dead and sent the body to the morgue, found a small pocketknife closed in Ellis' hip pocket.

It is charged by a number of persons who asked that their names be withheld that Giroff and Ellis had been quietly feuding for years over Giroff's alleged attentions toward Mrs. Roberts. "Why, Tommy has been going with Ann for five or six years, and Fred knew about it," one man stated.

A veteran police officer who has spent most of his time in squad cars patrolling the Westside, told The Recorder "Tom has shot at least four people up there."

These reported shootings do not appear on police records because Giroff was never arrested, except in 1937 when he allegedly shot through the tavern door at Mrs. Ola Martlett, then living at 361 Smith.

THE RECORDER established that James Slayton, 36, whose last known address was 419 Rankin, was shot in the foot by Giroff several years ago. In this case, Giroff chased the man from the tavern and shot him as he ran. Slayton, intending to "get him," was treated at General Hospital but didn't go to police.

Giroff has been arrested nine times for drunk and six times for drunken driving. He has been arrested for slot machine, keeping a gaming house, operating a lottery, liquor law violations and assault and battery with intent to kill.

She kept saying this, but Alton never answered.
SHORTLY AFTER THIS, Hall said, the woman came out with the knife dripping blood.

Miss Deloris Crawford, 20, 419 Rankin, identified the murder weapon as having come from the kitchen at her house.

Mrs. Golden Crawford, 47, 419 Rankin, told police she had put Turner and Mrs. Coe out of her house earlier that morning when they started to fight.

Turner, a native of Dyersburg, Tenn., who lived here 28 years, was buried Tuesday in New Crown following services in the Willis Mortuary.

He worked as a painter. Survivors include three sisters, Mrs. Mattie Turner and the Misses Willa Mae and Canary Turner, Indianapolis; two brothers, Thomas Turner, Chicago, and Milton Turner, Indianapolis, three nephews and two nieces.

Asks Protection Against Gamblers At Elks Meet

PHILADELPHIA — Gambling will be taboo during the grand lodge convention of the Elks in Atlantic City, N. J., according to Dr. Robert H. Johnson, grand exalted ruler.

He addressed a letter to the Atlantic City commissioner of police, pointing out that 100,000 delegates are expected to attend during the week, Aug. 20 to 27.

Dr. Johnson asked that police prevent professional gamblers from establishing themselves in any location where they will be a problem to the convention.

Social Scene

By RICHARD C. HENDERSON

Summer seems definitely to be here, I inform you on the slim chance that you somehow hadn't noticed it. That means, of course, a sharp recession in social affairs of the news-worthy sort. Just about all of us unfortunately forced to stay in town are having one glorious time picnicking, having wiener roasts, joy-riding, etc., but such activities are generally so impromptu and so small as not to merit telling each other about.

Not quite so small was the annual picnic Sunday afternoon of the choir of St. Philip's Episcopal Church. The vicar, Rev. Henry J. Hill, instituted last year a delightful custom of entertaining the choir at a picnic, and we've made plans to attend a different state park each year.

Last year we went to McCormick's Creek, and this year chose Brown County State Park. The angel in charge of weather, apparently daring not cross us up, withdrew the threat of rain so we were able to have a wonderful afternoon. (By the way, for those who may not know, I use the "we" because I direct the choir.)

Miss Patricia Turner was general chairman of the picnic, ably assisted with the food by Mesdames Mabel Swanagan and Effie P. LeMonde and the Misses Pearl Cowherd, Ida Carter and Mildred Watson.

It was, in general, a restful day, especially since a little hiking crew did not have my energy and was content with a mere ten-mile walk. You'd think after rearing royally on fried chicken, baked beans, potato salad and every other imaginable kind of picnic tidbit, plus pies and cake, they'd want to hike twenty miles.

Fitzhugh Lyons is president of the choir.

Another very delightful affair Sunday afternoon, although for definitely small fry, was the party at which Allison Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hill, celebrated her ninth birthday.

The affair was given from 3 to 6 at Flanner House by her grandmother, Mrs. Fannie E. Williams, and aunts, the Misses Mary and Hobbie Williams.

The room was beautifully decorated with pink, white and aqua crepe paper ribbon streamers, pink and white roses, pink balloon trees and colored balloons in the windows.

A highlight of the party was the appearance of magician Bill Holland, who gave the kids a good show, which they received most enthusiastically.

After the show the young guests tried their hands at drawing catfaces on colored cards about their heads. Prizes for the drawings were won by Benja Waugh and James Travis Fowler, Jr.

Following that session the young people had punch and cookies, then sat at long tables for ice cream cake, pie and mince.

The guest of honor and her hostesses sat at one table which was covered with a pink cloth and center with a beautiful birthday cake with white icing topped with aqua-colored strips of "fing' formed into a wicker effect.

The "basket" had green handles, and the center was filled with pink and white roses and baby's breath and was wreathed on a mirrored silver tray with myrtle.

The other table was covered with a pink cloth and had at one end a deep rose tophat, from which peeped a white rabbit with candy eyes. He held ribbon streamers which extended to little men made up of playing-card bodies and candy mint heads, with features painted on, and pink paper hats.

This made the table more "masculine" for the boys. The girls had a deep rose tophat at the other end of the table, spilling over with tiny bouquets of flowers and ribbon streamers onto the table.

Adults were served punch and cookies.

Junior hostesses were the Misses Prudence Banister, Renee Grant, Aletha Hill, Phyllis Maxberry and Harriet West.

Present also with lovely gifts were Yvonne Anderson, John Bailey, Jr.; Sandra Conn, Constance, Maria and Lonnie Fowler; Rita Grant, Miriam and Michael Harris, James Travis Fowler, Jr.; Janice Hicks, Daria Hill, David Hummons, Christine and Darlene Meriwether, Alice, Donald, Ronald, Brownell, Charles and Wilbur Payne, Jr.; Kathleen Ranson, Charles and Patricia Rogers, Judy Simms, Roy Smith, Jr.; Albert and Anita Spurlock, Joyce Stout, Benja Waugh and Linda and Philip West.

Adults who stayed through the party were Mesdames Levi Conn, Ernest Kirk, Robert Maxberry, S. D. Meriwether, Charles Rogers, Albert Spurlock, Ikeanyi Osili and daughter, Lillie Reese and Louis G. Hill, Jr.; Allison's paternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Kirkpatrick, and Messrs. Louis Hill, Jr., and James T. Fowler, Sr. Allison also received gifts from Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carter; her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Louis G. Hill, Sr.; her piano teacher, Mrs. Mary Wilson; Mrs. James D. Hill and his friends, Marilyn Ewing, Rocky Pettie and "Butch" and Bryona Slaughter.

Miss Willa Thomas, our church editor, has already written after arriving in London. She is house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Cooper, 37th Chime, Muswell Hill. Attending the Baptist World Alliance, she was to be guest speaker for the Thursday night meeting of the Young Women's club of Campbourn Baptist Church in London.

On Tuesday of this week she received as guest a pen pal with whom she had corresponded for eight years, Mrs. Jean E. Cooke of Ickleton, Derbyshire, England, who was accompanied by her brother, Ray Lloyd.

Miss Thomas also expects to meet another pen pal for the first time. Miss Karen Solax Ordal of Oslo, Norway, was also to be attending the Baptist World Alliance congress.

Before returning home, Willa will attend the International Sunday School Convention in Cleveland and will speak at Baptist churches in New York, Newark, Philadelphia, Rochester, N. Y., and Akron.

She plans to give travelogues upon her return home. I'm anxiously awaiting her return, as she says she has quite a selection of postal cards for me.

(Those of you who actually read this column may remember that I have been pleading for cards to be sent to me.)

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Powers sent a very nice card from Oak Bluff, Mass., showing the bathing beach and bath house. They say Martha's Vineyard, Cape Cod and the entire New England area have been fine for vacationing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Battles (who sent me twenty cards) have returned from vacationing in Northern Wisconsin, Waukegan, Chicago (where they attended the National Education Association convention at the Conrad Hilton hotel) and St. Louis, visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Larry J. Falwell, and family.

Their grandson, Laurence Elliott Falwell, returned home with them to begin his vacation.

The senior Falwells will spend the weekend here before going on to Trenton, N. J., to visit his relatives. Laurence will accompany them, but will return in two weeks at the end of his parents' vacation to spend two or three more weeks with his grandparents.

Horace Evans, formerly of this city but now living in Los Angeles, was house guest of the Battless last week.

Miss Phyllis W. Waters, vice-president of the Indiana State Teachers Association, spoke at the Indiana State breakfast held at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago during the NEA convention.

She also represented Indiana at the Illinois breakfast during the convention. Mrs. Mary S. Battles, who retired in June after a teaching career of 35 years, was also a delegate from Indiana.

From the Indiana University School of Music has come an invitation to see Leonard Bernstein's "Wonderful Town," Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights of this weekend and also next weekend in the air-conditioned East Hall Auditorium. Sounds good!

Gaillard Unit No. 107, American Legion Auxiliary, will hold installation of officers Saturday at 6:30 at the home of Mrs. Troy Manlove, 3458 North Kenwood avenue. Mrs. Ann Kennerly, past president, will officiate.

To be installed are Mesdames Adelaide Henderson, president; Pearl Williams, first vice-president;

FAMILY REUNION: Enjoying their family reunion last Sunday at Douglass Park were, sitting, Mrs. Reshia Baldwin, George Halcy and Mrs. Ann Jackson, all of Los Angeles; standing, Mrs. Neshia Pickett, Louisville; James Williams, Mrs. Mary Hatcher, at 82 the oldest living member of the family, M. S. Rosie Haley of Los Angeles holding George Franklin, Jr., eight months old, the youngest, Los Angeles, and Mrs. Sarah Darwin, Louisville. Mrs. Hatcher is the mother of 13 children, 10 living, 50 grandchildren and 50 great-grandchildren. Mesdames Hatcher, Haley and Pickett and Mr. Williams are brothers and sisters, Mrs. Haley being the one who planned the reunion for the past five years. Indianapolis members of the family enjoying the first reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Trotter, 621 Blake street; Mr. and Mrs. George Hatcher, 2910 North Rural street, and Mrs. Gladys Cruise, 1041 Holborn street.

Pfc. Donald Wright Visits Family Here

Pfc. Donald E. Wright, who recently completed a six-month Mediterranean tour of duty, spent his leave with his mother, Mrs. Helen Wright, and family.

He entered the Marines in June, 1954, and was promoted to private first class in January. He is now stationed at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

Marie Barte, second vice-president; Maude Gaillard, recording secretary; Wilma Suter, corresponding secretary; Virginia Jenkins, parliamentarian; Hazel Manlove, chaplain; Sara Furman, sergeant-at-arms, and Mary S. Battles, treasurer.

Walt. DeLacey Is Host to Las Senoras

Walter DeLacey, 4063 Cornelius avenue, was host to the Las Senoras club recently for the first annual anniversary banquet.

Six women in navy and white frocks, emphasizing the club colors, dined and wined with their husbands, escorts and guests. The beautifully decorated table was centered with garden lilies and held the anniversary cake.

The president, Mrs. Mattie Jones, welcomed honored guests and lauded officers of the past year for their loyalty and cooperation.

She officially introduced the newly elected officers, including Mesdames Agneria Moss, president; Rosa Grissom, vice-president; Mattie Jones, secretary; Gertrude Taylor, treasurer; Addie King, financial secretary, and Rheta Taylor, chairman.

On Sunday afternoon at 4 the local club, with young people of the household of Ruth Chapter No. 2271, will render a program at Northwestern Community Center.

Mrs. Sadie Hardman is sponsor of the club, and Miss Betty Hutcherson is president.

Ritz Bridge Club Members Close Season with Lincoln Hotel Dinner

Women of the Ritz Bridge club celebrated their last meeting for the season July 7 by having a dinner party in Parlor "L" of the Lincoln Hotel. The members deeply appreciated the wonderful service the doorman gave them by meeting them at their cars with an umbrella to protect their "after 5" dinner gowns from the rain and then parking their cars.

Cocktails were served by choice at 6:30. The tables were arranged in "T" formation with the president at the head and the other officers on each side.

Attending were Mesdames Hattie Neal Thomas, president; Mabel VanCleave, vice-president; Beatrice Woodruff, recording secretary; Clodie McCann, financial secretary; Freddie Douglass, treasurer, and Sue Ann King, Artelia Woodard, Mamie Anderson, Virgie Burton, Pearl Cowans, Atchia Fields and Lorabelle Johnson.

Dinner was served at 7, starting with a fresh fruit cocktail, followed up with crisp salad greens which had an added zest with the Lincoln's own tasty French dressing.

Then a robust helping of delicious fried chicken, creamed gravy, mashed potatoes, new buttered peas, hot rolls and coffee for the main course.

The delightful dessert was vanilla ice cream with fresh strawberry sauce and cookies. Topping off the very palatable dinner were delectable and a choice of liquors. The enjoyable evening ended at the home of Mrs. Hattie N. Thomas, where more refreshments were served and members exchanged gifts.

The Ritz Bridge club will resume meetings the first of September.

Mattie M. Miles To Become Bride

Invitations have been issued announcing the wedding of Miss Mattie M. Miles and Thomas Crawford, to be held Saturday evening, August 6, at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Minnie Hawkins, 977 West 29th street.

Both are active members of the Bethel AME Church. Miss Miles being a member of the stewardess board and Mr. Crawford an officer, class leader and chairman of the class leaders' board.

The reception will be held from 6 to 8 at the home of Robert Crawford, 5610 East 34th street.

CHILDREN AND TEEN-AGERS ALWAYS CLAMOR FOR ICE CREAM SODAS

REMEMBER THE OLD SODA FOUNTAINS and the time when a visit to your favorite drug store represented the high spot in your day? Well, customs have changed and many of the most popular soda fountains have been transferred to home territory. "The Gang" enjoy doing things for themselves and it is only necessary to keep a few basic supplies on hand. Ice cream is so reasonable when bought in bulk that making it at home seems an unnecessary chore, so today we will give a new way to make sodas.

The ingredient that makes the sodas so easy-to-make and gives that extra richness is Pream the instant powdered cream. This instant cream is so useful too, for all types of picnics and summer outings. Just follow the simple instructions given below for delicious summer sodas:

PREAM ICE CREAM SODA
For each serving put 2 teaspoons Pream in tall glass. Add 1 tablespoon warm water and stir to dissolve Pream. Fill glass with flavored sparkling beverage (cola, ginger ale, raspberry, strawberry, cream soda) and mix well. Add a scoop of vanilla ice cream. Serve with straws. (ANS)

Personals and You

Mrs. Jessie Mae Grundy, 1345 West 33rd street, a well-known beautician, left Saturday morning for San Francisco, motoring to visit friends and be house guest of Miss Aline Bethel. She was accompanied by her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Garvey Grundy, Sr., 2524 North Oxford street.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson, 2033 Bellefontaine street, are spending two weeks vacationing in Canada, visiting Toronto, Montreal and Quebec City.

The Misses Ollie B. Whitaker and Thelma Walker have moved from 450 Douglass street to 822 West New York street, MEloree 4-1045.

Homer, Obie and Mary McKenzie, children of Mr. and Mrs. Obie R. McKenzie, are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tiny McKenzie, at McKenzie, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Arnett and little daughter Joan Renee, of Detroit spent a few hours in the city Sunday with relatives en route to Evansville to attend the funeral of his grandmother.

Emmett Rudolph, who has been on the sick list since last November, left Sunday to live in Detroit with his daughter, Mrs. Wilhelmina Evans, formerly of this city. Friends may contact Mr. Rudolph at 3047 Clairmont avenue, Detroit 6.

Gamma Tau Girls Have Sunday Picnic

The Gamma Tau Girls entertained with a "bring yourself" picnic Sunday at Five Oaks.

Business and Professional Women Plan Nat'l Meeting for Chicago

CHICAGO—Dr. Lucie E. Thompson, national president of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc., will preside at the 20th anniversary convention of the group, to be held at the Administration Building here, 5531 South Parkway, July 27-30.

A unique feature during the convention sessions will be a series of "career clinics" now being planned by Dr. Thompson so all members will be able to observe office etiquette, office practices and administration from club-affiliated women who are tops in various fields.

Another special feature planned for the convention guests is a "newspaper and public relations workshop" to be conducted by Global's Lou LuTour.

Special awards will be made to several women who have made outstanding contributions in the fields of business and of the arts. "Miss B. and P." will be crowned as the climax of a project now being conducted on a national scale.

National officers, assisting Dr. Thompson will be Mesdames Bile Miller, Brooklyn, N. Y., first vice-president; Evelyn Benson, Centreville, Md., second vice-president; Jessova Divers-Hayden, Birmingham, third vice-president; Marie Harrison, East Orange, N. J., financial secretary, and Marion Bryant, Pittsburgh, recording secretary.

Also Mesdames Willette B. Price, Atlantic City, corresponding secretary; Minnie D. Hurley, New York City, treasurer; Ola Jones and Mary S. Nelson, Chicago, editors; Alberta Person, Brooklyn, N. Y., managing editor, and Ollie Porter, New York City, advertising editor.

Miss Eunice Carter, New York City, is national attorney for the organization. Miss Doris Johnson, Stanford, Conn., is national junior governor. Miss Florence Gibson of Easton, Md., is national junior scribe, and Helen Goines and Catherine Richards are parliamentarians.

This convention promises to be the "biggest and the best" held with varied, well-planned workshops and program activities which will interest women in all fields of business.

Lecturers will detail ways and means to have better businesses. As always at any convention, there will be several social affairs.

To date Dr. Thompson is proud of the large number of delegates who have sent in registrations to the national office, 4723 South State street, here in Chicago.

Voice of the Eastside

By MARY P. McGUIRE

"Love beareth all things, hopeth all things," Dr. F. Benjamin Davis, pastor of New Bethel Baptist Church, said last Sunday afternoon at the installation services of Rev. Robert L. Saunders, former associate minister of New Bethel, as new pastor of Second Baptist Church, Shelbyville.

Dr. Davis went on to say that in a minister's first year he is a kitten, in the second a cat and in the third year it's "scat." So, dear readers, you see he is a man of experience. He knows US... and New Bethel loves him because he does know us.

Now, back to the services. The singing group of New Bethel turned out not less than 75 singers, including the choir and women's chorus. And as usual, they showed themselves off, singing until the Spirit came down, and to top it off with frosting were selections by Mabel Washington and Mrs. F. B. Davis.

The program also featured the mayor of the city, Philip Banawitz, who extended a welcome to the city. The response to the church welcome came from Mrs. Bernice Swiney, a New Bethel choir member, while Rev. Mathew Downey introduced Rev. Davis.

Rev. Davis gave the people real food for thought by reminding his listeners that "God calls the pastor. We should thank God for His gift."

He also advised that "the new minister should not forget the old members of the church." He demonstrated what he meant by calling to the attention of the congregation the presence of twelve of his deacons, noting Nathan Watson and Ervin Hatcher as among the oldest.

I cannot close this note on the dedication without mentioning Wallace Wolfolk, who directed music at New Bethel for over 42 years. When the twenty or more cars pulled up, he was on the job, taking care of New Bethel people and seeing that they had places to park.

Of course, driving a big Jacobs Brothers Funeral Home car, I had a time getting a place, but in spite of the rain Mr. Wolfolk found one. An estimated 200 persons from Indianapolis attended to congratulate Rev. and Mrs. Saunders, including his grandfather, his mother and her mother.

I also noted that St. John AME Church was represented by Mrs. Hazel Jackson, while Mrs. Elnora Wooley represented Olivet Baptist Church. Rev. Saunders taught Bible class at St. John.

Rev. and Mrs. Saunders greeted all at the lovely reception held in the Second Baptist Church annex for members and friends.

Despite the large campaign on for safe and sane road and city-street driving, accidents continue to happen, and some very good friends of mine are shut-ins from serious accidents.

Mrs. Emma Swope, 1604 North Arsenal avenue, is improving after an accident, and I am glad to say that Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson have been able to return from Ohio after a very bad accident. The Wilsons can be seen at home, 1921 Columbia avenue.

Word comes to my desk that Rev. D. Dore, former pastor of Scott Methodist Church, is now pastoring McKinley Methodist Church, Cincinnati. He sends greetings to the Ole Scribe and others.

Chandler Houston, a member of Scott Church, also reports a grand meeting of the Lexington Conference of the Methodist Church, held in Cincinnati.

Although the Scribe was late getting the message, it is here now!

The old saying "Charity begins at home" had a real meaning for me last Sunday, when I had to choose between my own church and Emmanuel Baptist, where I was booked as speaker.

From all reports, the choir's anniversary went over in a big way. The Emmanuel choir, of which Mrs. Evelyn Fleming is president, was observing its 36th anniversary. Rev. F. R. Hatcher is pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. David Barnes, 2702 Caroline avenue, entertained two groups on the beautiful lawn of their home last week. A wiener roast and games were featured for the evening. Mrs. Pearl White assisted as hostess.

The Southern Harmonizers will render a full musical program for the Willing Workers of Bethlehem Baptist Church at 3 Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Sammie Wathall, president, expects a full house.

Last, but very important, members of the True Vine Baptist Church Ensemble will observe their ninth anniversary Sunday at 3. Mrs. Naomi Edwards will be program chairman. Music-lovers are especially invited.

Forrest Wooley Visits Chicago

Forrest Wooley, prominent young local real estate dealer, has returned after visiting relatives and friends in Chicago.

He was accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Jo Ann Wooley, and children, Karen, Pamela, Ethelora, JoAnn and Forrest Wooley, Jr. Also accompanying was Mrs. Wooley's mother, Mrs. Ethel Chism.

Mr. Wooley and his family reside at 319 West 32nd street.

Will Lewises Note Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Will Lewis, 517 North Senate, observed their fifth wedding anniversary at their home last Tuesday.

The couple were married July 19, 1905, at Paris, Tenn., and moved to Indianapolis a number of years ago.

They have two daughters, Mrs. Ruth Cheeves and Miss Mary Lewis; three sons, Charles, Thomas and Harold Lewis, all of Indianapolis, eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Many people know Mrs. Nettie Scott King as an astute business-woman, active civic and church leader and "one swell woman," but most of them do not know she has talents along the lines of poetry. Now taking a rest at Riverside sanitarium and hospital, Nashville, she has expressed her appreciation of the kindness of many friends in the dedication of the following poem to readers here:

MY FRIENDS

My friends are countless as the stars that fill the clearest sky,
And everytime we say hello, I hate to say good-bye.
They are the neighbors on my street, the folk who work with me,
And all who serve the slightest need in the community:
The grocer, the druggist, the pal who prunes by hair,
The movie usher, and the one who takes my trolley fare.
The mailman, laundry man, police, preacher, family, and the rest
Who always make me feel as though I am their honored guest.

They are the friends who comfort me and help my heart to smile,
And do so much to make this life a little more worth while.
They fill my room with cards and flowers that give me lots of zest.
Why, I just cannot explain myself or get it off my chest.
But I want to be their dearest friend, as much as I can be,
Because their friendship happily has given me a debt
Of everlasting gratitude, that I will never forget.

I want to pay them back in full, and then a little more,
Until, if possible, I hold the long end of the score.
And so it will become their turn to be a friend.
And when they have done their favor, it will be my turn again.
And thus our friendship will go on—with every kind endeavor.
And they and I will be good Friends, FOREVER AND FOREVER.

Expecting to return home this week, Mrs. King was being characteristic in wanting friends to know she deeply appreciates the hundreds of lovely cards, letters, flowers, etc.

Those friends would, of course, answer to her "You deserve them." As owner of the King and King Funeral Home and hence a leading business figure, Mrs. King is constantly called upon for financial contributions, and like most wise business people, practically never refuses.

Ingratiating her to hundreds, however, has been her willingness to give her own time and effort to worthy causes.

An intimate friend, Mrs. Mary P. McGuire Connell, columnist for The Recorder, sums up the esteem of those other hundreds when she says, "Mrs. King does her work quietly, knowing that God sees everything and not worrying about earthly reward."

Mrs. Connell pointed out that she knew of many deeds Mrs. King has performed without fanfare, such as donating a handsome bulletin board to Trinity CME Church, although she is herself a member of New Bethel Baptist Church.

As president of the Eastside Better Business and Civic League, of which Mrs. King's husband, the late Thomas E. King, was an organizer, Mrs. Connell has had ample opportunity to see Mrs. King at work.

The two women were also happily associated for eighteen years when the columnist was editor of the New Bethel Booster. She praised Mrs. King as a main supporter throughout those years and also cited in particular her kindness in being hostess to an annual formal Valentine dinner for the Booster work.

Nationally-Known Hair Stylist Tells How to Keep Hair "Natural" in Spite of Heat, Perspiration

Mrs. Alpage Terrell, nationally-known hair stylist, lecturer and consumer consultant, has been busy lately telling beauticians of the East that Paglo Pomstick keeps that lovely natural look in a woman's hair regardless of heat and perspiration.

Mrs. Terrell says that even though you perspire, you can keep your edges smooth with a Pomstick. In presenting the latest styles, she demonstrates the easy use the product has at the hair-line, giving sheen, gloss and a lovely, naturally look when the hair edges are smooth and neat.

Pomstick is unconditionally guaranteed by Paglo Laboratories, 72 Fifth avenue, New York City, with money returned if not satisfied. At the recent New York State Beauticians convention held in New York City, Mrs. Terrell further demonstrated Pomstick is necessary for good grooming, and protects against damage perspiration does to hair-setting.

"An important hint," Mrs. Terrell said, "is to apply Pomstick before retiring to protect your hair-do while you sleep, because Pomstick is moisture-proof."

Mrs. Terrell will continue demonstrations along the East Coast.

State Baptists Plan 6th Music "Extravangza"

The Indiana Missionary Baptist State Association's music department, of which Mrs. Willa Johnson is chairman, will hold its sixth annual session Saturday, August 13, starting at 9 a.m., she announced this week.

Now is the time to elect delegates or messengers and to prepare for the musical extravangza to be held that night.

South Calvary Baptist Church, of which Rev. L. A. Manuel is pastor, will be host to the sessions. Dr. C. Henry Bell, pastor of Mt. Paran Baptist Church, is state moderator.

ZETA PHI BETA BASILEUS ABROAD: Dr. Deborah Cannon Partridge, grand basileus of Zeta Phi Beta sorority, is enjoying the beginning of her first trip abroad, having sailed on July 8 on the SS America, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Gertrude Cannon Morris, nationally-known Baptist churchwoman; her sister, Dr. Mary Cannon McLean, noted educator and wife of Dr. S. McLean, Springfield, Mass., and her uncle, Rev. K. Moody, Hartford, Conn.

Jolly 32 Club Enjoys Dinner

Members of the Jolly Thirty-Two club were entertained by Mrs. Theresa Kansas, 539 North Senate avenue, with a delightful dinner following the meeting.

Mrs. Jones, legal advisor of the club, was elected "Lady of the Year" for the education program. One of the oldest members of the club, she was also president of the educational program.

Mrs. Lillian Lewis is president of the club, Cecil L. Jones is financial secretary, and John Partlow is treasurer.

Three-Family Reunion Held

The Franklin, Martin and Torain families held their annual reunion last Sunday at Shakamak State Park, spending the day at horse-back riding, games, bicycling and enjoying plenty of good food.

Among the 92 members of the families present were the Martins of New Albany, Crumps of Jeffersonville, Hickersons of Louisville, A. B. Conley, Terre Haute; Nathan Moore and Richard Woolridge, Hopkinsville, Ky.; Colemans of Noblesville and Tillotsons of Gary and East Chicago.

The 1956 reunion is planned for the third Sunday in July at Tippecanoe River State Park.

Jubilee's at Galilee Friday Night, July 22

Meet the Jubilee's at Galilee Baptist Church, 2626 E. 25th St. Friday evening, July 22nd, at 8 p. m.
Songs of praise will be presented for your enlightenment by the Jubilee's of Galilee. Songs of spiritual awakening for you who are perplexed and weary with life's problems, disappointments and are discouraged.
Come and listen to God's Songs of Hope.
And for you who have been richly blessed by God's goodness. You come thanking and thinking of His great goodness to you.
If you are hungry and really need food for the soul, come and be fed at this spiritual feast with the Jubilee's.
Everybody is welcome.
A fellowship awaits you at Galilee.
Rev. D. B. Dudley, minister.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Salvation in Christ Alone
There is no salvation out of Christ. No other name but that of Christ has been given among men for their salvation. Acts 4:12 tells us there is no salvation in any other; for there is none other name under Heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. If any are saved, whether in gospel or heathen lands, it is through the name of Christ.

1) No system of salvation can be true and lasting which does not maintain the glory of God's character as moral governor.
2) Salvation through Jesus Christ is the only system of salvation that upholds God's law as the rule of moral government.
3) Whatever may be the pretentiousness and plausibility of salvation, they have no force or validity, for they cannot put into their preamble, "thus saith the Lord."

4) The salvation that every man needs is one which shall cancel the guilt which has necessitated his condemnation and make provision for the renewal of his whole nature after the image of God. There is salvation in no other name under Heaven, except the name of Jesus.

World Baptists Return To London Birthplace

By WILLA THOMAS
LONDON—The World Baptist Alliance returned to its birthplace for its Golden Jubilee meeting July 16 to 22.

The Baptists of the world numbered approximately 6 million members when the Alliance was formed here in 1905 when secular movements were making strong bids for the exclusive allegiance and loyalties of men's hearts, souls and minds.

Today, this spiritually strong religious denomination, not only has successfully warded off attacks by the enemies of Christianity, but has gained impressively in membership for a present total of 21 million adherents.

The inaugural meeting was held in Albert Hall, Monday, with 3,400 delegates from all parts of the world in attendance.

AMONG national delegations are the Russians, attending the Alliance for the first time since 1928, and representing 520,000 Baptists of the Soviet Union.
Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, Archbishop of Canterbury, gave the welcome address, following which representatives of more than 60 nations answered the roll call.

The announced purpose of the alliance is to promote the spirit of fellowship, service and world cooperation among themselves while recognizing the independence of each church and committed to the traditional policy of non-interference with the functioning of each unit.

Designers of the alliance felt it was needed to manifest Christian unity in universal world fellowship and help thereby to strengthen the struggling smaller communities where the beneficent influence was needed.

Among the auxiliaries meeting simultaneously will be the Women's Conference, headed by Mrs. G. R. Martin, Norfolk, Va.; the Youth section meeting, the Ministers and Laymen's Bible Study group, and the conference on radio and television techniques.

PROMINENT AMERICANS sharing the spotlight on the program include Mrs. Nannie H. Burroughs, Washington, D. C., president of the Women's National Baptist Convention, Inc., U.S.A.; Rev. G. C. Taylor, well-known minister of Brooklyn; Dr. P. S. Wilkerson, San Antonio, Tex., vice-president of the National Baptist Convention of America; Dr. W. H. Jernigan, Washington, D. C.; and Dr. G. L. Prince, Galveston, Tex., president of the National Baptist Convention of America.

THE INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Convention met this week in Cleveland, Ohio.

REV. F. F. YOUNG, the pastor, will give Holy Communion at First Baptist, North Indianapolis, Sunday at 8 p. m.

NEW BETHEL BAPTIST, recently destroyed by fire, is holding regular services in the basement of the church. Rev. F. B. Davis is the minister.

YOUNG PEOPLE of the Disciples of Christ churches will participate in the ecumenical camp work this year.
Camps are located in Japan, Trans-Jordan, Italy, Germany and Haiti and are sponsored by the World Council of Churches as a medium of leadership training.

Representatives of the press of various nations were entertained at a luncheon in Baptist House Tuesday, July 17 by officials of the Alliance and its public relations officials.
Among US reporters attending were Dr. J. H. Jackson, Chicago, Rev. L. V. Booth, Cincinnati, and Miss Willa Thomas, Indianapolis, representative of The Indianapolis Recorder.

Laymen Would Drop "African" In Church Name

SOUTH BEND, Ind.—A resolution asking that the name of the African Methodist Episcopal Church be changed to the Allen Methodist Episcopal Church was adopted recently by the Fourth District Laymen's organization at its annual convention.
The change would honor the memory of one of the founders of the denomination, Bishop Richard Allen, in Philadelphia in 1816.
The move follows that of other A.M.E. groups that will petition the General Conference next year, meeting in Miami, Fla., next year to eliminate the racial designation in the denomination's name.
Attorney Charles Willis, president of the Laymen's organization and host to the convention said more than 150 delegates from Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa attended.
The CME Church, following the historic Supreme Court decision declaring racially segregated public schools unconstitutional, changed its name from the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church to the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, retaining its historic letter abbreviation for its name.

Mrs. Taylor Winfield Buffalo, Buried Here

MRS. NOVELLA WINFIELD
Services for Mrs. Novella Irene Taylor Winfield, Buffalo, N. Y., a native of Indianapolis were held at the Garfield Church here of which she had been a member July 14, with the Stuart Mortuary conducting and burial in New Crown.

Final rites were conducted in Buffalo July 13 at the St. Luke Baptist Church of which she was a member since she moved to Buffalo.

She attended Public School 64, was graduated from Manual Training high school, and completed a course at the Kansas City (Mo.) School of Nursing.
She moved to Buffalo in 1927 and was later married to Louis Winfield.

Besides her husband, she is survived by three brothers, Louis and Albert Taylor, both of Indianapolis, and Richard Taylor, Muncie, Ind.; 11 nephews and seven nieces.

James Williams
Funeral services were held for James Watson Williams, 58, a former resident of Indianapolis, July 14 in Jacobs Brothers West Side Chapel, with burial in Crown Hill. He died July 9 in Detroit.
Born at Nashville, Mr. Williams had lived here 20 years, going to Detroit 10 years ago. He was employed as a spray painter at the Chrysler Corporation in Detroit.
The widow, Mrs. Maggie Williams, a son, Haywood Williams, and six grandchildren survive.

Mrs. Ida Kennedy
Services for Mrs. Ida Louise Kennedy, 65, 3643 N. Capitol, were held July 19 in Mt. Zion Baptist Church. Burial was in Floral Park.
Born in Columbia, Tenn., she had lived here 37 years. Also, Mrs. Kennedy had been a member of the Orchestra-Band Parents Club at Crispus Attucks High School.
Mrs. Kennedy died on July 15 in her home.
Survivors include a son, William Henry Kennedy of Indianapolis; a daughter, Mrs. Helen K. Prince of Salt Lake City; a brother, Samuel Henry Crosby, Nashville and one grandson.
People's Funeral Home conducted the services.

Miss Sally Wallace
Funeral services for Miss Sally Wallace, 88, 410 N. California, were held July 11 in Lucas Funeral Home. Burial was in New Crown.
Miss Wallace died July 8 at the Marion County Home.
Survivors are a brother, John Wallace, and a niece, Miss Mildred Recker.

Mrs. G. Heard

and two tireless hands, she fought the ever present grim threats of denial and want so successfully that all of her surviving children were given the start along the road of success and a useful life dreamed of by every true mother.

HER MOTHER'S LOVE was broad enough to include in her concern friendless children in the neighborhood or wherever she found them.

In fact, she was affectionately known and worshipped as Mother by countless children who came to know and love her.

Born in McMinnville, Tenn., she was left a widow in 1923 with eight children, the oldest being 16 at the time.

Through her sacrifice, patience, and grit all finished high school except one, and five went on to earn college degrees.

The mother of nine children, one died in infancy and another a son, John Ramsey, died while serving his country in the Armed Forces in the Pacific in 1944. She was awarded the honor of Gold Star Mother in recognition of her son's service.

MRS. J. V. A. M., who married the late John Heard after coming here 36 years ago, was named "The Ideal Mother of 1948" by the Progressive Mothers Club, being the first to be accorded that honor.

Although she suffered a broken vertebra for 10 years which was not discovered until a year ago after 33 X-rays, she remained radiantly active throughout and was especially gifted in needlework.

Since many of her children attended Attucks high school she also attended night school there several years ago taking a course in ceramics. She made and has left a number of exquisitely fashioned flowers in delightful colors and designs.

Her enduring mother-instinct found expression in recent years after her own children had grown in baby sitting, not for pay but simply because of her love for children.

The seven surviving children besides Mr. Ramsey include, four other sons, Sanford Ramsey, YMCA secretary in Shreveport, La., and former YMCA staff member here; George Ramsey, Indianapolis, Prof. Joseph Ramsey, Johnson C. Smith university, Charlotte, N. C., and Charles Ramsey also of Indianapolis, and two daughters, Mrs. Joyce Bagley, Detroit and Mrs. Maybelle Smith, Indianapolis, who looked after her mother the past few years.

COURT KILLS BUS JIMCROW RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The United States Circuit Court of Appeals here last week threw out segregation on buses in a ruling on a Columbia, S. C. case.

The court, splitting heavy fire against proponents of segregation, said that the principle applied by the United States Supreme Court decree outlawing public school segregation "should be applied in cases involving transportation."

YMCA Worker

ices be terminated. The announcement of Zeigler's resignation by Dr. H. N. Middleton, chairman of the Board of Management and the executive secretary said in almost unparalleled brevity, merely that:

"Mr. Hopson F. Zeigler has submitted his resignation as staff member of the Senate Avenue Branch, YMCA."

However, it was learned from a reliable source that he was tendered and accepted a check covering 15 weeks pay.

A veteran of 30 years service at the local "YM," Zeigler had not reached the retirement age, but it is understood he may apply for pension upon reaching the age of 65.

ZEIGLER did not say after resigning whether he could ask return of the money he had paid into the retirement fund or wait until he is eligible to receive retirement pay.

He is the second veteran member to leave the institution within the past year.

Sanford Ramsey, serving as program secretary, also was ousted for reasons of policy and is now serving as executive secretary of the Shreveport, La. Negro YMCA.

ZEIGLER JOINED the branch staff 30 years ago under the former executive director, F. E. DeFrantz, and was advanced to a top post because of his high ability and manifest fitness for Y work among the young and adult members of the institution and in the community generally where he is held in high esteem.

His ouster was effected with the approval of the personnel committee of the Metropolitan organization upon the recommendation of the Senate branch's managing committee.

RETIREES: Henry Mitchell, 2125 Highland Place, ended 48 years of service in the gas industry July 15 when he retired.

Joining the staff of the Indianapolis Gas company, one of the predecessors of the present Citizens Gas and Coke Utility at the age of 18, he worked at the Langsdale plant at Langsdale and Northwestern avenue throughout his career and until gas making was discontinued there early last year was a water gas operator. He was one of the oldest members of the Utility's Quarter Century club in point of service.

Mr. Mitchell always insisted he thoroughly enjoyed his work with the Utility and expects to enjoy his retirement equally as well.

to have included in laws whenever he deemed necessary, provisions denying federal aid or other support to states or other political units practicing racial segregation.

Several weeks ago the outspoken New Yorker crossed swords with President Eisenhower over an amendment he offered to the Military Training Reserve act, sponsored by the chief executive, that federal aid be withheld from any state that refused to eliminate racial distinctions in selecting members of its National Guard.

Ike, at a press conference, expressed unalterable opposition to the introduction of amendments to important legislation which amendments are aimed at stifling jim crow under penalty.

Regardless of the Presidents' stand, Powell continued to press for adoption of the amendment until it was defeated in a House Military Affairs committee.

THE BILL as passed by Congress and signed by Ike still permits states to deny Negro youths the right to enter their National Guards with impunity. Rep. Powell came into international limelight several months ago when he visited the widely reported conference of colored nations at Bandung.

On his return he sternly cautioned the US and other Western members of the democratic coalition that the darker peoples of the world were ready to join forces in a determined move to wipe out colonialism and race prejudice under which they have been forced into the status of inferior and secondary political powers.

are certain that our opinion is shared by the majority of the bar and bench throughout Indiana.

"For the past twelve years he has through his consecrated love for the legal profession and the community given unstintingly of his time, his efforts and his abilities to this community. His record while a member of the staff of the Prosecutor's Office is one which would be difficult to surpass."

His work in recent months as Attorney for the Board of Safety has added a new dignity to this body.

"His community life has been exemplary as has his devotion to the American way of life and to our institutions. In spite of his numerous professional activities he has been quick to protect the defenseless and to come to the aid of the downtrodden. He is a Christian gentleman in all of its implications, and not one breath of scandal has ever been attached to his personal life."

"His training both in the arts and in the law has been received at our own Indiana University which, in our considered opinion, is the equal of any in America and his experiences over a period of many years have given him an unsurpassable capacity for any assignment our government might give him."

"We have no quarrel with any of the gentlemen whom Mr. Beckwith feels exceed Mr. Kuykendall in qualifications for federal employment, nor do we wish to engage in any controversy as to comparative abilities. It is sufficient to say that Mr. Kuykendall is highly qualified."

"Nor do we question Attorney Beckwith's right to measure abilities. He we are sure, has some information which entitles him to disagree with us, the Republican National Committee, The State Department, The Judiciary of Indiana, the members of the bar and this community."

"If he has it, we demand, that in all fairness to each of us, he disclose it at once in order that our beloved nation and its citizenry be spared embarrassment by an unfortunate appointment."

"If he has no such information we demand a retraction of his most unfortunate and unfounded charges together with an explanation as to whether he has chosen to serve those elements within this community who feel that we must deny opportunity to our brethren because of petty limitations of race and who desire to keep our group from effective participation in American life."

"Administration after administration, in making appointments of persons to represent our government in the Liberian republic, have made the appointments on a purely political basis without regard to the needs to the country and with very little regard for the qualification of the appointees."

"With a population of approximately two million, consisting of twenty-eight indigenous tribes, it is obvious that the office of country director of Liberia should be filled by one eminently qualified by reason of successful experience in the field of business."

"Right now when eminent scientists and physicists warn us that we are about to embark upon the atomic and hydrogenic destruction of the entire human race, it becomes the most powerful nation in all the world to view transiently the selection of an ambassador of good will to represent this nation as a black Republic."

"The appointment of a country director to the Liberian Republic should be taken at least, as seriously as the appointment of ministers, ambassadors and high commissioners to other small republics, many of which can claim no blood kinship with any considerable element of the American populace."

"Ordinarily, Negroes are expected to keep their mouths shut and say nothing regarding matters of importance to their own welfare. In many instances they are compelled to do this because of their lack of interest in their government and their general failure to cast votes in substantial numbers. However, in this instance, numerical consideration should be laid aside. The very best we have to offer should be selected."

"I have therefore insisted to the White House, the State Department and to the United States Senate Committee on Foreign Relations that extreme caution should be exercised in making the appointment."

Important thought to keep in mind:

There's no need to worry about stalling in hot-weather traffic; no need to worry about balky, hot-engine starting! Just fill up at your Gulf station with New Super-Refined Gulf NO-NOX—the gasoline that's made with evaporation control to prevent vapor-lock. And always protect your engine with New Gulf-pride H.D. Select, the motor oil that controls carbon.

New Gulf No-Nox Gasoline delivers not just the highest octane but full working octane

because it's super-refined to burn clean

See what a difference Gulf super-refining makes. Gulf takes out the "dirty-burning tail-end" of gasoline—at the refinery—to bring you few, clean-burning Gulf NO-NOX.

NO GASOLINE, no matter how high the octane, will let your engine deliver full power performance—mile after mile—unless it burns clean. That's why it pays to always use new NO-NOX. Gulf NO-NOX is the clean-burning fuel that gives you full working octane day in, day out. In addition, you get...

- more complete engine protection
- extra gas mileage in short-trip, stop-and-go driving
- freedom from vapor-lock, engine stumbling and stalling
- no knock, no pre-ignition—even in today's high-compression engines

Now! For the ultimate in working octane performance, always use Gulf's super-refined gas-oil team...New Gulf No-Nox Gasoline and

New Gulfpride H.D. Select Motor Oil

The only motor oil super-refined by the Alchor Process for modern high-compression engines.

Innocent Man Jailed 17 Years Awarded $51,000

CHICAGO (ANP)—Earl Howard Pugh, after serving 17 years in prison for a murder he did not commit, was awarded $51,000 last week by the Illinois State Legislature.

Pugh was freed from Stateville Prison in 1953, after an investigation by a Chicago attorney revealed that Pugh's conviction was based on a forced confession and evidence suppressed by arresting police authorities.

The 37-year-old Pugh was accused, along with another man, William Fowler, of stabbing to death William Hagg, a railway express worker, during a robbery in

Wilhelmina Crisp, State Federation Pioneer, Succumbs

GARY—Less than a week after the convention of the Indiana State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs was held in Indianapolis, one of its pioneer members died at Methodist hospital here.

Mrs. Wilhelmina K. Crisp, a past trustee of the state federation, died Monday morning at the age of 71, following a short illness. A native of Clarksville, Tenn., she had lived here for 42 years, making her home at 2116 Washington.

She was a member of First AME Church, its Conference Workers club, was a past president of the Modern Priscilla club, a pioneer member of the Central and National Federation of Colored Women's Clubs and was chairman of the ways and means committee of the Indiana federation.

Funeral arrangements were handled by the Creswell Funeral Home.

Surviving are the husband, James E. Crisp, Sr., and a son, James Crisp, Jr.

1936. Witnesses gave police descriptions of the two men and, several days after the killing, Pugh and Fowler were arrested.

After six days of alleged police brutality, from Sept. 17-23, Pugh and Fowler confessed. The confession served as the only evidence in their trial. Pugh was sentenced to life imprisonment, and Fowler, who died in prison in 1949, was given 199 years.

In 1951, however, Attorney George Leighton, formerly an NAACP counsel here, began investigating Pugh's case and discovered that arresting officers had suppressed vital evidence that would have cleared the two men during their trial.

"That evidence suppressed by the two arresting officers," Attorney Leighton said. "was a description of the two men who actually killed and robbed Hagg. Police, set on solving the case, since they were under pressure from the railway company, realized they had arrested the wrong men and suppressed the documented descriptions from the jury to get a conviction."

Pugh was 20 years of age at the time of his sentence.

In April, Senator Fred J. Smith of Chicago introduced a bill at the 69th General Assembly of the Illinois State Legislature, asking the state to award Pugh $51,000 compensation for the time he was illegally imprisoned.

The bill, guided by Senator Smith, passed both houses and was signed by Governor William Stratton.

Some People Say --In Our Town

By W. ALEXANDER CHAMBERS

Frank R. Beckwith has caused mild consternation, at least in local GOP ranks following recent revelations of his opposition to the appointment of Rufus Kuykendall to a federal post in the Republic of Liberia. Both men are lawyers with some just claims to yeoman service in GOP politics for more than two decades.

Mr. Beckwith "an unceasing cup-bearer" of the Republican party, is politically enterprising as they come by any yardstick. However, through the years no party mantle ever has fallen upon his shoulders despite the fact that he has sought various elective posts. Some observers on the local political scene view him as a type or person of individualism who refuses to retreat at a certain point from convictions or commitments. History books tell more about the politicians, humbugs who have talked out of both sides of their mouth, infrequently winking an eye at the same time.

Mr. Kuykendall is a lawyer of ability and fair repute. He failed in a recent try for nomination for the city council; but on the community level the great and near great and tall between have failed in other days and like manner. Rumors exist on the nature of Mr. Beckwith's opposition to the appointment of Mr. Kuykendall. We submit, the arena of politics is one of unending contradictions of the saying that "knowledge and timber should not be used much until they are seasoned."

Charles Decker was recently named as a member of the State Employment Security Division Advisory Council. Mr. Decker, director of the Indiana FEPC, has served in that position since the beginning of the administration of Gov. George N. Craig.

In some quarters it is ventured that Rufus Kuykendall has been named tentatively to a federal post in Liberia. But this week the name of Mr. Decker was associated with names of other persons over the state who would be willing to be drafted for the post in Liberia.

Phillip Johnson, (Republican) member of the lower house of the Indiana General, recently in discussing or advocating reforms of the state's lower court system, including the justice of peace courts, said:

"The way most Justice of the Peace courts operate, a person practically has to prove practically has to prove innocent until proven guilty beyond all reasonable doubt."

Discussing court reform or a recent joint study, Mr. Johnson cited six recommendations of the report. Among these, one proposes that all courts of limited jurisdiction, such as city, municipal or superior courts previously created by the legislature, be abolished.

Another proposal abolishing superior, criminal, juvenile and probate courts, substituting additional circuit judges where the volume of legal matters warrants. There is more in this reform program than meets the eye or ear of the guileless citizen, but it may prove interesting to watch the "pro or con" stand on the issue of politicians rated among those most likely to succeed.

James D. Cornett, a local young man, was named recently to a

Garyite State Entrant in Nat'l Talent Contest

GARY — Miss Corinne Morse, 17-year-old daughter of Mrs. Evangeline Morse, 2400 Adams, will represent Indiana in the annual talent and beauty pageant sponsored by the Imperial Council, A.E.A.O.N.M.S. of North and South America, and its Jurisdiction, Inc., during the national contest August 14-19 in Detroit.

Miss Morse won the organization's "Miss Indiana" crown in a contest at Mahomet Temple No. 134, East Chicago, competing against entrants from South Bend and Richmond.

College scholarships worth a total of $3,000 will be awarded to the first, second and third place winners in the national contest. Miss Morse will receive a smaller scholarship from the Indiana organization if unsuccessful in the Detroit competition.

A June graduate of Roosevelt high school, Miss Morse is a dancer and pianist. Her mother is a social worker at Campbell Friendship House.

Mrs. Vallie Whitson

Services for Mrs. Vallie Whitson, 70, were held July 16 in Mount Olive Baptist Church, of which she was a member. Burial was in Crown Hill. She died July 13 in her home, 509 Hiadatha.

Mrs. Whitson was born at Alexander City, Ala., and had lived here for 31 years.

Survivors are a son, John R. Marbury; four daughters, Mrs. Pearl Moore, Mrs. Lucille Hawkins, Mrs. Mattie Russell and Mrs. Geneva Yarbo, and eight grandchildren all of this city.

post in correctional work at the Indiana State Farm. The appointment was made by Hugh P. O'Brien, chairman of the state correction board. Mr. Cornett is a graduate of Crispus Attucks high school and Fisk University. He served two years in the U. S. Army recruiting service after graduating from Fisk.

His father, Walker Cornett, is a member of the office staff of Gov. George N. Craig. His mother, the late Mrs. Katye Duncan Cornett, was at one time a member of the business department staff of The Recorder. She was active in civic affairs, women's clubs and Republican politics through the years.

Mrs. C. B. LaDine reported recently to the Marion County Civic Auditorium committee on her visit or inspection of civic auditoriums in four major cities of the West. These include Kansas City, Mo.; San Francisco, Denver, Colo., and Dallas, Tex. Mrs. LaDine is vice chairman of the committee. Lowell McPherson is chairman of the committee.

Mrs. LaDine reported being informed that Indianapolis should not build its main auditorium to seat less than 10,000 persons. She said she found music halls in other cities were smaller than the 3,000-5,000 size being studied here. Some auditorium minded citizens are slightly ruffled over the fact that nothing, or little has been said hereabouts concerning St. Louis and the great Kiel Auditorium.

The great Kiel Auditorium according to a local political personality of eminent civic stature exemplifies the spirit of progress which should be initiated in our city. Let us forget there was a proposal recently to "have Indiana talked about like Texas."

Dr. Robert H. Lowe, superintendent of the General Hospital, seemingly recently issued orders which were misunderstood by an ambulance attendant. A "mixup" in Dr. Lowe's orders to "take every accident victim to the hospital" caused a row between an attendant and an accident victim.

Dr. Rowe said, "if the victims don't want to go to the hospital we can't force them. It would violate their civil rights."

According to reports the argument occurred on the scene of an accident in which five persons were injured slightly. Despite insistence on the part of the ambulance attendant one victim refused to go to the hospital.

Following the removal of inmates (doctors) from ambulances, replacing them with first-aid men and medical students, orders were issued to bring patients to the emergency wards for treatment, instead of treating them on the scene of accidents.

West Africans Face New Laws, Regulations on Land Ownership

ENUGU, Nigeria (ANP)—Indicative of the revolutionary change of approach to land ownership throughout Africa is the issue in West Africa of a White Paper foreshadowing new laws on land tenure, at the same time as the issue of the report by the Royal Commission on land population in East Africa, which also recommends changes.

The White Paper issued by the Eastern Nigerian Government of Nigeria proposes modifications in traditional systems of land tenure to facilitate economic developments.

In West Africa it has been the land for the generations not to encourage the acquisition by non-

Africans of freehold titles to land. LAND IS COMMUNALLY OWNED. A large proportion of land in Nigeria is communally owned and is controlled and administered by recognized heads of families who have no proprietary claim to ownership but act as trustees of the land for their ancestors and for future generations.

In general this conception has rendered and still does render the outright alienation of land impracticable in the light of strict native law and custom. In this system, each member of the group has by right of birth a valid claim to be allotted as much land as he can conveniently farm.

The White Paper issued by the Eastern Nigerian government says the Government will continue to maintain, protect and uphold the respect for traditional systems of land tenure in the Region, but individuals, statutory corporations, companies and co-operative societies with adequate capital and managerial skill will be encouraged to acquire land for the development of the Region, if this can be done without hardship to local people.

DESIRE FOR INDIVIDUAL OWNERSHIP GROWING

An official statement issued by the Eastern Nigerian Government says that with the advance of Nigeria toward a modern economic structure, the British conception of land tenure and conveyancing practice is gradually becoming popular, and there is on the one hand an increasing desire for individual ownership and on the other a pressing need for security of tenure. Already in the sub-divided lands of extended family groups there is a growing tendency toward such lands as under individual ownerships and in such cases sales are offered and valid titles pass to purchasers.

It is lawful for the Government to acquire and administer lands for exclusive Government use or for general public use, such as for Government schools, hospitals, post offices, waterworks and aerodromes. The Government will endeavor to secure such lands by voluntary and amicable agreement with land owners but, says the White Paper, should this prove impossible and the project deemed to be essential, the Government will reluctantly exercise its powers of compulsory acquisition in the public interest.

Indianapolis Pastor Named To Head Shelbyville Church

REV. R. L. SAUNDERS

R. L. Saunders Installed at Second Baptist

SHELBYVILLE — City officials, religious leaders and prominent citizens joined members of Second Baptist Church in installation services launching the pastorate of Rev. Robert L. Saunders on a note of high optimism last Sunday.

Dr. F. Benjamin Davis, pastor of New Bethel Baptist Church, Indianapolis, under whom Rev. Saunders served as associate minister, in his installation sermon assured the local church and community that the selection of their new pastor was a "wise and provident one."

"He is eminently able, qualified and a genuine leader in the true Christian tradition," Rev. Davis declared.

Mayor Philip Banawitz welcomed the new minister and community leader on behalf of the city, presenting the traditional keys of the city and symbolically opening the door for public-spirited service.

"This city, like any other, welcomes the services of a new leader, dedicated to community uplift and community advancement," he asserted.

Among other speakers were prominent citizens of both races and representatives of the local ministerial alliance. A crowd which packed the church to capacity and spread into an overflow gave enthusiastic approval.

Mrs. F. B. Davis was soloist, and music was also furnished by the singing groups of New Bethel Church.

Following the program, a reception was held in the church annex. Mrs. William Smith extended the welcome to the pastor and his wife, and Mrs. Evola Riley served as master of ceremonies.

The Sunday afternoon program climaxed a week of ceremonies celebrating the inception of the pastorate of Rev. Saunders. Guest speakers during the week had also included Rev. C. B. Dailey, pastor of Second Baptist Church, Anderson; Dr. J. A. G. Jordan, Good Samaritan Baptist Church, Indianapolis; Rev. F. F. Young, First Baptist, North Indianapolis, and Rev. H. T. Toliver, Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Indianapolis.

THE MISSIONARY society of the church will hold a new service Sunday afternoon, while the Sis-

U. S. Supreme Court May Be Asked To Test Interracial Marriage Ban

By O. C. W. TAYLOR

NEW ORLEANS, La. (ANP)—The U. S. Supreme Court may be called upon to test the legality of the ban on interracial marriages here.

New Orleans is the city where the "dark and light folk" have been meeting secretly for generations. According to a famous song writer, it boasts "more of the blackest white folks and the whitest black folks" in the country.

When 16 persons were arrested and charged with miscegenation last week, neighbors began looking at each other, wondering who's white and who's black?

Appearing before Judge Bruce Nunez in St. Bernard's Judicial court, eight of the 16 charged with interracial marriage, pleaded not guilty. A ninth pleaded not guilty to a charge of swearing falsely in connection with marrying a 13-year-old girl.

Four other persons charged, two couples, have fled the state and are in California and Illinois. Extradition requests have been denied by the respective states.

Since the mulattoes were run out of Haiti by the blacks, New Orleans has been socially upset by the "who's black, who's white" question. On March 10, eight couples were indicted on charges of intermarriage.

One defending attorney has threatened to take his case to the U. S. Supreme Court, to test the legality of the ban of interracial marriage.

But numerous and prominent officials here seriously doubt that there will ever be a real investigation to definitely discover who is black or white.

NEW ORLEANS has been noted down through history as the freest Dixie city with interracial cohabitation, and where whites have fathered children by Negro women and provided them with financial assistance and education.

It has been rumored that many of New Orleans' most successful citizens, considered white, have "coffee in their blood."

Attucks' Coach Makes Fine Showing In Nat. Links Meet "For the Boys"

GEORGE RODDY

By JIM CUMMINGS
George Roddy, Attucks high school auto mechanics instructor and golf coach who is king of the amateur golfers at the Douglass Park course, made a very fine showing in the 30th annual USGA Public Links golf tournament held here July 9 through 16.

Roddy did as well as any other Indianapolis entrant (14 in all) in the biggest tournament in the country, with 2,200 men representing 31 districts in the states and Hawaii in the competition.

The 47-year-old Attucks teacher won two matches and was ousted in the third round as the field was cut to 64.

In the Harding Cup play, Roddy led the three-man Indianapolis team to third place, shooting 74 while his partners were firing 75 and 77.

Superior Court Judge John L. Niblack, USGA district representative here, said this year's Harding Cup team was the best Indiana has fielded "in 15 years."

The team was made up of the three men among 144 posting the lowest scores in the qualifying round which determined the local representatives in the tourney.

Roddy is the first Indianapolis Negro to participate in the national meet, which was last held here in 1935. At that time local officials barred Negroes.

"I didn't have a bit of trouble this time," Roddy told The Recorder. "Judge Niblack saw to it."

Roddy said he wasn't disappointed at losing, but was very pleased at his showing. "Everyone in that tournament was better than good," he stated.

The only reason he entered the meet, Roddy said, was to attempt to create interest among young Indianapolis Negroes in golf.

"Golf is a great game with a big future," he said. "The top golfers make as much money as the top baseball players, and they live better."

"Why the National Open alone is worth $100,000."

Boys should start swinging golf clubs at as early an age as possible, he recommends.

Golf at Attucks is year down. In the four years the Westside school has had a golf team, the Green and Gold has never been a serious contender in golf.

According to Roddy, this is due to generally low interest in the sport here. Only five or six boys come out for the golf team when at least a dozen are needed.

In most cases, the boys who do come out for the team know absolutely nothing about the game. Roddy has to teach them the fundamentals and work right on up with them.

Attucks does everything possible to stimulate interest in the sport. The school furnishes the balls and the clubs, besides transportation to the meets and paying $10 of the annual $15 fee required to play on the city's six public courses.

Roddy's showing in the recent tournament was no accident. He's been a good golfer for a long time.

Born in Kokomo, Ia., he captained the University of Iowa's golf team in 1931, the year he earned a degree in mechanical engineering there.

He was all-university golf champ at Iowa his sophomore and senior years and was undefeated in the intercollegiate matches in his junior year, his first year on the team.

The only Negro entered, he won the Eastern Iowa Open Championship in 1930 and was National Negro Amateur Champ in 1930 and in 1937.

Instructing auto mechanics at A. and T. College at Greensboro, N. C., Roddy quit playing golf after the 1937 title win because of the lack of facilities open to Negroes in the South.

He came to Attucks in 1949 from the North Carolina college. Roddy said he had two main reasons for coming here—he wanted his three children educated in the North and he liked the "fine public golf facilities of Indianapolis."

From his home at 3211 Boulevard place, Roddy can drive to any of six public courses in ten minutes.

And he spends most of his spare time on one of them, shooting par golf on all but Douglass, where he cards phenomenal scores. He holds the course record of 28 at the par 35, nine-hole course. Just Friday of last week he went out on the nine holes in 30 strokes and returned with a 34 for a 64 on the par 70 layout.

Ties Homer Mark; Gets 4 Hits, 3 RBI's

Big Don Newcombe, the pitching sensation of the baseball world, won his 15th game against a single defeat Friday of last week, beating the St. Louis Cardinals 12-3.

He had himself quite a day as he hit a pair singles, a double and blasted his sixth homer of the season, batting in three runs, in five trips to the plate. The homer tied the National League record for pitchers.

Newk's sensational pace began May 6, the day after he was reinstated as a Dodger. He had been suspended May 4 for refusing to pitch batting practice.

Newcombe went to work and won eight straight, making it ten in a row with the two he won before his suspension. The string was snapped June 12 by Chicago.

has an even more fantastic pile of statistics. He is batting over .430 and slugging around .850. Fourteen of his 27 hits have been for extra bases, including seven doubles, and a triple besides the six homers. He also has driven in 17 runs, three more than the most any pitcher brought across the plate all last year.

Campanella and Robby Both Out

BROOKLYN—Roy Campanella and Jackie Robinson were both out of the Dodger lineup again early this week. Roy and Jackie, just getting back into the game after short terms on the sick list, suffered recurrences of old injuries.

Campanella's little finger on his left hand was struck by a pitched ball and Robby re-injured the bad knee which benched him last week. Campy is expected to be out only a few days. However, officials say they have no idea as to when Jackie will be able to return.

Indpls. Dodgers, Rained Out Sun., Release Schedule

The Indianapolis Dodgers, rained out of a scheduled game at Arcadia last Sunday, announced the following schedule this week:

Shoals, July 24th; Brazil, July 31st; Kokomo, August 7th, and Franklin, August 12th.

All the games will be played at the cities scheduled. The Dodgers ask all their fans to attend their out-of-town games, as well as the ones played here.

"Twenty Ways How Not to Hit a Baseball."

Jackie will drive around the outfield in a jeep and will catch flies without stopping the machine. He will throw three baseballs at one time to three different catchers and will toss a baseball out of the park with a sling shot and bazooka gun.

One of his newest stunts involves throwing two baseballs in the air and with one swing of the bat, driving one forward to a waiting fielder and one behind him to a receiver.

Diamond Notes of Yesteryear ..

By TINY BALDWIN

Last week we named some managers, owners and players of yesteryear. But due to those things which we columnists always say are beyond our control we did not have the full list available. So we'll just jump right in this week with more names of outstanding performers of years gone by.

Vern Adams, Bob Young, Alex Shores, Lawson Slaughter, Allan Trabue, Bob Trabue, Hugh Smith, Leonard Slaughter, Mace Raspberry, Thomas "Red" Kelly, George Gill, Sam Bennett, Bill Barlow and Art McMurray.

Ray Long, Charles "Dusty" Decker, Hines Burnett, Connie Day and Jesse Cave are others.

A number of people called us since our last publication to ask the whereabouts of some of the players mentioned in our column last week. Those mentioned who have passed on are:

Clarence McWaine, Oat Francis, Joe Bell, S. B. Owens, Omar Newsome, Charles "Chalk" Sleet, Dale White, Roger Campbell, Clint Brown, Henry Baker, Roy Taylor, Carl Lewis, Everett Goldie and Artis Bailey.

The boys at the Marble Palace Barber Shop, 441 Indiana avenue, did a fine printed along with the name of job in their selection of an all-

Following our all-star selections we're going to write about some of the men who went on from here to gain national prominence. Such as Oscar "Mr. Baseball" Charleston, William "Dizzy" Diskin, who pitched for C. I. Taylor and is now a scout for the New York Yankees, Jim Taylor, Ownie Bush, Ted Sullivan.

We're going to have a little fun too, joking about everything and everybody until the baseball season ends.

And don't forget, everyone is invited to write in all-star selections. Each selection will be 41 Indiana avenue, printed along with the name of the selector.

Milwaukee Braves Sign Gary Youth

GARY—The Milwaukee Braves last week signed a 17-year-old Roosevelt high school graduate to a pitching contract.

Charles Theus, June graduate of Roosevelt, was signed Thursday of last week for the 1956 season. He will be under contract to the Wellsville, N. Y., farm club of Milwaukee and will report to the Braves' minor league camp at Waycross, Ga., next March.

played high school baseball because the Panthers don't field a diamond team.

He made an outstanding record and drew widespread attention while pitching two years for American Legion Post 99, under coach Tindolph Cook.

The right-hander, who has a jet-fast fast ball and is goxy with the curve, began on the local sandlots and played several seasons with V.F.W. Post 1919.

His big break came when the Braves held a try-out camp at Gary June 17. He took his glove along and caught the fancy of the four men in charge.

Theus, who didn't participate in any high school athletics, was one of the city's most outstanding ROTC cadets, rising to the rank of Cadet Colonel of the City of Gary. He received a number of awards during his three-year ROTC career, including the Gary Post-Tribune Saber and the PMS and T Award as the most distinguished cadet of the entire Theus, 2373 Ohio, Charles never Gary corps.

CALLIN' ALL ENTERTAINERS . . . Local entertainers are urged to participate in the big Recorder carriers picnic this year on August 8 at the Boy Scouts' Camp Belzer, about ten miles northeast of the city, near Fort Harrison . . . Last year, local entertainers gave one of the finest shows for the more than 400 Recorder carriers ever seen here, according to Thom Ervin, enterprising Recorder circulation manager . . . Mr. Ervin wants to duplicate the feat this year . . . So come on, fellas and gals, and let's give the kiddies a show of their lifetime . . . Call ME. 4-1545 and ask for Mr. Ervin or call ME. 4-7049 and talk to the "Saint" . . . Several entertainers have already signed up for this rollickin' affair, but more are needed . . . Especially a band to play swingy tunes in front of The Recorder office before the motor caravan leaves for this day's outing.

REMEMBER, there'll be a mammoth motor parade, and all persons with cars are urged to join the caravan to the big rolling grounds of Camp Belzer for a day of picnicking and fun . . . Come with your lunches packed and watch the kids enjoy themselves with all kinds of games, including amateur boxing, "hot rod" bicycle race, in which the winner will receive a shiny new bike; while the second prize will be a new suit of clothes, and third prize will be $10.00 cash . . . pie eating contest, pony rides, ferris wheel, baseball game and boat rides. Mr. Ervin has gone all-out this year to make the picnic one of the most gala affairs ever held in this part of the country for the enjoyment of hundreds of youngsters and grown-ups.

THE BIG VARIETY SHOW will be made up of local musicians, singers, dancers and comedians . . . And again, we urge all entertainers who have a little time to spare, to call in and sign up for The Recorder Newsies' picnic on August 8 . . . 'Twould be a good deal, Gates . . .

HOW OLD IS ARCHIE MOORE? . . . (Ed's note: This piece was lifted from the St. Louis Mirror, contributed by Hiawatha (fite mgs.) Gray . . . the paper that is) "there is some dispute concerning the age of the old boxing favorite Archie Moore, who recently knocked out Carl (Bobo) Olson to retain his light heavyweight crown.

"The birth record he has for the ring that is filed at Collinsville, Ill., gives his birth date as Dec. 13, 1916, which would make him 38, but on that issue, former triple champion Henry Armstrong, stated last Wednesday that he and Archie had started fighting here in club smokers in 1930.

"Now, it is really hard to believe that Archie, no matter how dextrous he is, started boxing at the age of 13 or 14 . . . On the record book, Archie has his first fight listed as taking place in St. Louis against Sammy Christian, in December, 1936. This means that Archie started his career at the age of 20, which is unusual for a youth was pressed for money and who was going to take this as his livelihood.

"Armstrong, who is now 42, stated in an interview in Los Angeles: 'Archie and I started boxing at the same time. It was in St. Louis in 1930. We fought in the same smokers. I was a featherweight and he was a heavyweight. I left St. Louis and didn't meet Moore again until 1936. Archie was then a welterweight and he became my sparring partner. I remember him well in 1936 because he shook me up with the hardest punch I'd ever been hit with, a left hook. He didn't floor me, but I don't recall that we used him much after that.'

"As for the championship fight with Rock, Armstrong thought if the bout goes over 10 rounds, Archie wouldn't have a chance, although Archie has a real chance to win, and Marciano isn't liable to hit him like he did the Englishman, Don Cockell."

Now, you boys along the Avenoo (prizefight-wise, that is) take it from there . . . Especially our good friend Cal Thompson, the tonsorialist, and the fella who contributed much towards Archie's early training . . . Come in, Mr. Raymond Brown, let's hear from you . . . These fellas along with Mr. Gray should have something to say about the above quoted piece . . . Just thought the fellas on the stem would relish his info. Donteakno!

Leonard and Leonard Get Rave Notices In Sydney, Australia

Leonard and Leonard, nationally known dance team, are really breaking 'em up in Sydney, Australia, according to news dispatches from that far off country. The following article appeared in a Sydney paper: "Leonard and Leonard, one of the few top-line colored dancing dous in the world, have scored a sensational success with Sydney audiences."

"Now featured in 'Harlem Blackbirds' at the Palladium, this brilliant pair have evoked wildly enthusiastic applause from packed houses in the last three and a half weeks."

"There's nothing sophisticated about the dancing of these boys. They're real Negro, and proud of it."

"In America there are three dancing teams disputing leadership—the Clark Brothers, the Nicholas Brothers, and Leonard and Leonard."

"Your reviewer, who has seen all three pairs in action, gives the verdict for Leonard and Leonard. They get right down to solid Negro acrobatic dancing, and their rhythm is terrific."

"Their style is peculiarly suitable for the current performances of the 'Harlem Blackbirds' which features brand-new rhythmic, modern Harlem music written by the producer and director of the show—Larry Steele, Harlem's noted composer.

"Leonard and Leonard also score a big hit in the now widely-discussed 'jam session' in which the entire cast wind up the show. 'You'll never forget this show.' 'Hometown boys are really goin' to town . . . Now, ain't that so? That's why we say, boost your LOCAL TALENT. Who knows? There might be some more Leonard and Leonards."

There you have it . . . Our

Hamp's Israeli Tour Nets Nation $250,000

CHICAGO (ANP)—Lionel Hampton, internationally renowned band-leader, recently spent a month on a benefit concert tour for Israel for an agency similar to the Red Cross and raised almost a quarter of a million dollars for the organization.

Hamp said all that he asked was transportation money for his 17-piece jazz band. The musicians' salaries, living and other expenses came out of his pocket.

The Israeli junket, sponsored by the Mogen David Adom agency, climaxed a smash six-month European tour. Lionel said they played to sell out crowds in Tel Aviv, Jaffa and Haifa.

"At first, the Israeli government didn't know how we would go over but we were mobbed. They've got jitterbugs there as well as great, cool and hot musicians," he said.

"That's a real modern country and their music really jumps," Hamp added. He hopes to return to Israel next year.

WORD FOR TODAY—"It would seem that if ever there is to be achieved something resembling a durable peace, one of the first things required is to rid ourselves of national prejudice, Ralph Sockman once put it well when he said: 'Working together is even more effective than talking to gether'."—Edward R. Murrow over CBS-Radio.

BLUES OPERA—First news of Johnny Mercer and Harold Arlen's lavish "Blues Opera," now being whipped into shape in Italy, was broadcast recently to millions of Americans on CBS-Radio's "On a Sunday Afternoon" program.

Sam Pierce, producer-writer of the program, heard that Arlen was on his way to Europe. Taking a chance, Pierce called Arlen in New York and talked to him a few hours before he sailed. Arlen talked about "Blues Opera" and suggested that Pierce interview Mercer about the project on the air.

Mercer was reluctant at first to talk about his opera project, but finally consented to answer a few questions. He revealed that his and Arlen's best known blues songs, including "Blues in the Night," "Accentuate the Positive," "One for the Road," and "That Old Black Magic," are given special treatment in the opera.

Mercer also revealed that the "Porgy and Bess" company now in Rome, will be incorporated into the "Blues Opera" cast. He said the premiere of the production will be in Paris, probably in late August or early September.

The opera, traditional in concept but with the underlying American blues-spiritual-rhythm spirit, will make its way to New York and perhaps Hollywood, via Paris and Rome.

GUEST—Singer Billy Daniels, "That Old Black Magic" genius, appeared as a special guest last week on Steve Allen's "Tonight" TV show. Daniels replaced violinist Florian Zabach, originally listed for an appearance that date.

"Tonight," seen over NBC-TV from 11:30 p.m. to 1 a.m. EDT, Mondays through Friday, will be telecast from Hollywood for two or more weeks while Allen is filming the title role in Universal-International's "The Benny Goodman Story."

JURY—Sammy Davis Jr., back in Hollywood after a record-breaking hotel and night club tour, headed up Peter Fotters' "Take Box Jury" last Sunday evening on CBS-Radio. Jayne and Audrey Meadows and comedian Ken Murray rounded out the mid-July panel.

MUSIC '55—Sister Rosetta Tharpe and Marie Knight, singers of spirituals and blues, were the special guests of Stan Kenton on the second presentation of CBS-TV's "Music '55" last Tuesday night.

MUSICAL UPBEAT

By BOB WOMACK

DUE TO THE HOT WEATHER and the fact that many are now on their vacations over the country the local band business is almost at a stand-still except for the units who are on location gigs. Many social clubs have dis-banded for the summer months, therefore cancelling many orchestra engagements until the fall dancing season, thus putting many cats out of work. The one-nighters are a thing of the past during this time. However, come September the work situation will get better.

BILL DOGGETT, one of the nation's leading swing organists, and his trio will invade the Murat Temple here on July 27th. This cat is one of the greatest in my book. However, my old friend, Milt Buckner, is a sensation too. I am sure that our own Willis "Mr. Hammond" Dyer will be present at the affair to dig the jive which I know will be mellow and how . . . Dot Simmons popular singer now living in the 'Big Apple' (New York City) is now back in town on a visit.

ROY WOOD, ex-deejay of radio station WIBC, is now program director and newscaster on the all-Negro station WCBR, Memphis, Tenn. This station recently celebrated its first year on the air. Also called your "Friendly Neighbor," it can be found on the 1480 spot on your dial . . . Bethal Williams, guitarist, and combo are now playing at the 19th Street Tavern on the Eastside . . . Montane Phillips and his George's Bar crew are doing a nice job . . . Keep the good work up, my friend . . . The Counts, popular singing and recording stars, are back at the Turf Bar with the Johnson-Montgomery Quintet . . . Dot Miller, vocalist, is now being featured with Bill Stewart and his orchestra currently at the new P. and P. Club. Formerly sang with Rupert Harris, James Moody, Sr., Gene Pope and others here and out of the city . . . Also featured at the club is that lovely singer and dancer, Bea Booze, who first invaded our city back in 1945 with the late Lola Barbee appearing with her on a show at the Sunset Terrace Ballroom. I understand that Bea really puts on a show singing such numbers as "It's Crazy," "My Baby Takin' All Of Me," "Oh What A Dream" and others.

KNOW YOUR COMPOSER: James Weldon Johnson, 1871-1938 . . . Born in Jacksonville, Fla., later to become high school principal there, world famous as a poet, author, lyricist, journalist, composer and producer of light operas, lawyer and statesman under Pres. "Teddy" Wilson. Served as U. S. Consul to Venezuela, later to Nicaragua and to the Azores with his brother, J. Rosamond Johnson, he composed the NEGRO NATIONAL ANTHEM.

JOHNSON COLLINS AND HIS TRIO are now back at the Topper Club after completing a six-week engagement at the 39 Club in downtown Naptown . . . Sarah Vaughan, notationally known vocalist, and "Red" Prysock, tenor sax man and brother of singer Arthur, were recent guests of Robbie Robinson, popular young manager of the Elite (1523) Club down Capitol Ave-way . . . Flo Garvin, 88'er and singer, still at Bolin's Nite spot. The gal is sporting a new '55 Short . . . More power to you . . . Specks Maynard and his pushing crew the talk of the Ferguson Hotel Lounge. Where Wallace Smith is your genial host. Why not come out and visit him sometime. He is a great guy to know.

BISHOP BENJ. CLARK, better known as "Puddin'," has been selected as this week's "STAR OF THE COLUMN." "Puddin'," as you know, is a little guy weighing only 360 lbs., 5' 11" (smile), and is the popular evening bartender at Felton Smith's 303 Club. Ben received his education from At-tuck's Hi back in '34. After completing his schooling, enlisted in the CCC's ('35-'37) was stationed at Camp No. 539, Nesker Park in the southern part of Indiana. During this time had a combo of his own. I understand was the featured vocalist . . . Naturally . . . Since that time married, has three children; also belongs to the Masonic Lodge here; member of Corinthian Baptist Church. Hobbies. Likes to dig music, including long hairism; swing records, etc. Future desire: to become a great spiritual singer . . . Well, here's hoping that your dreams come true. It can be done . . . We salute you for being this week's star.

FINE FAN: Never underestimate the power of even one fan! Martha Carson, of the "Grand Ole Opry" and Capitol Records, has found that out. Recently she received a call from Charles Kin, a fan of hers in Trenton, Mo., who operates a 600-acre farm in Grundy County of that state. He said he was "fetchin'" her a load of viands. A few days later he drove 800 miles to Nashville with steaks, roasts, chickens and other produce for her deep-freeze.

Still later King called her manager-husband requesting the price of having Miss Carson for a matinee and night performance in Trenton. Although the price for two performances was high, they quoted him the amount. He accepted and confirmed. At the appointed time Miss Carson was in Trenton for the matinee—playing to exactly three people—King, his brother and sister-in-law. For the evening performance King threw open the local hall to the public for free, and Miss Carson played to a packed house.

ROBBIE ROBINSON

Montgomery-Johnson Quintet, Pork Chops, Among Stars On Dancin', Singin' And Comedy

A capacity crowd will be on hand when the curtain rises on Perry and Mason's presentation of "Stars of Today," a concert and show at the Murat theater on Wednesday, July 27, at 8:30 p.m. The entertainment package is headlined by Bill Doggett, Hammond organ stylist and his celebrated combo, and 200-lb. Handsome Arthur Prysock, Decca Recording star. This is a variety bill which offers something entirely different from the ordinary musical shows. Included in the several acts are dancing, singing, comedy and swing music.

Featured attraction on the star-studded two-and-a-half-hour show is the great Bill Doggett, famed Hammond Organ stylist, who has been seen and heard in most of the top nite clubs in the East and Middle West. Doggett also scored heavily on Ed McKenzie's initial Television Show on Station WXYZ in Detroit, Michigan. Doggett will solidly send you with his King recordings of "High Heels," and his latest release that is really a pip, "Street Scene," backed up by another sure-fire seller titled simply "Oof." Others in his repertoire include "Song Is Ended," "It's a Dream," "Easy," "There's No You," "It's a Dream," "Sweet Lorraine," "No More in Life," "Sweet Slumber," etc.

No. 2 man on the "Rock 'N' Roll" show is 200-lb. Handsome Arthur Prysock, singing "Take Care of Yourself," "I'll Never Let You Cry," "This I Know," "If You Don't Somebody Will," etc.

Prysock is considered America's newest baritone sensation, after eight spectacular years with Buddy Johnson's famous "Walk 'Em Rhythm Band," and is now on his own as a "single." Carrying the male vocal banner for the Buddy Johnson crew was the biggest break in the handsome six-foot singer's career.

Featured on the bill are "Pork Chops," direct from the Club De-Lisa in Chicago, where his comedy wowed patrons for several weeks; Montgomery-Johnson quintet, formerly with Lionel Hampton and his great band, and also appeared with the great Bobby Hackett, trumpet star of Jackie Gleason fame, at the Murat last May; The Counts, nationally known singing stars of "Darling Dear," "My Dear, My Darling" and "Hot Tamales," etc.; Louis Dabner, sensational vocalist, who has appeared in some of the nation's topflight nite clubs, and is currently on tap at George's Bar and Orchid Room; Ronella Sanders, recent graduate of Attucks High School, making her first bid as a vocalist on a big time show, and the El Dorados, sensational dancing team, who appeared in the Jon Lei dance at Caleb Mills several weeks back.

Don't forget the date, Wednesday, July 27 at Murat Theater. Tickets are now on sale at Ross & Babcock, Claypool Hotel, The Indianapolis Recorder and Doyle's Eat Shop.

"Broken Lance" Tops Bill At Walker Theater Sun.

Showing now thru Saturday at the COOL Walker theater is "Woman's World" with Clifton Webb, Arleen Dahl and Fred MacMurray in Technicolor and Cinemascope. Companion picture is "Mambo," starring Sylvano Mangano and Katherine Dunham dancers, plus cartoon carnival and 2nd chapter of "Capt. Africa." Starting Sunday for 4 days will be "Broken Lance" in Cinemascope with Spencer Tracy in the starring role, Companion pic is "Big Combo" with Richard Conte and Brian Donlevy in the starring roles.

Secretary to the Late Movie Actress Hattie McDaniel. Completes Her First Novel

HOLLYWOOD (ANP) — Ruby Berkley Goodwin, who plays a top featured role in 20th Century Fox's "The View From Pompey's Head," has just completed final revision of her first novel. The story "Pure White" is to be published by Doubleday, who also published her autobiography, "It's Good to Be Black."

Mrs. Goodwin's first contact with motion pictures came through her having served as private secretary to the late beloved actress, Hattie McDaniel. She served in the capacity of secretary from the time the famous actress first rose to fame in the classic "Gone With the Wind," until her recent and untimely death.

MARIAN ANDERSON TO RECEIVE ELKS' 1955 LOVEJOY AWARD

WASHINGTON (ANP)—Marian Anderson, world-renowned contralto, has been named recipient of the Elks' 1955 Lovejoy Award. The award will be presented Aug. 22, as the highlight of the 56th annual convention of the Order in Atlantic City, N. J.

The presentation will be made during a luncheon held at the Atlantic City High school. Elks Grand Exalted Ruler Robert H. Jackson and New Jersey's Gov. Robert B. Meyner will be principal speakers at the affair.

Established in 1949 at the San Francisco convention, the Lovejoy Award has been made each year since 1950 to the person whom the awards committee selects as "having made an outstanding contribution in the field of race relations." Miss Anderson was selected because "through the years, she has been in the front lines conquering segregation through her gentle approach of the arts and the establishment of the Marian Anderson Awards Committee, which grants scholarships to young aspiring singers of all races, creeds and colors." Other outstanding American recipients of the award include: 1950, Gov. Alfred Driscoll; 1951, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche; 1952, Branch Rickey; 1953, the late Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune, and 1954, NAACP's Atty. Thurgood Marshall.

In Memoriam

WILMA HARVEY MITCHELL—In loving memory of our daughter and mother, WILMA HARVEY MITCHELL, who passed away July 22, 1948. We have only your memory, dear Wilma. To remember our whole lives through. But the sweetness will linger forever. As we treasure the image of you. Elmer and Luella Harvey, Parents.

HARDY—In loving memory of my dear husband, JAMES HARDY, who passed July 28, 1953. It is lonely here without you. And sad and weary the way. Life has not been the same. Since you were called away. Estella Hardy, Wife.

POOLE—In loving memory of LEOLA K. POOLE who passed away July 20, 1953. I have lost my soul's companion. A life linked with my own. And day by day I miss her more. As I walk through life alone. Sadly missed by Trubee Poole, Husband.

DULIN—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, JAMES L. DULIN, who passed away July 22, 1951, in Evansville, Ind. Four years have passed since that sad day. When our dear Dad was called away. God took him home, it was His will. But within our hearts he liveth still. Mary E. Dulin, Wife, John and Hattie Mae Redford, Son-in-Law and Daughter.

THOMAS—In loving memory of our dear mother and sister, MARGARET THOMAS who passed away July 17, 1944. Many a lonely heartache, Many a silent tear. But always a beautiful memory Of one we loved so dear. Elizabeth Simms, Hazel Newsome, Clara Maxey, Daughters, John Catchings, Brother.

MARSHALL—In loving memory of RANSOM (FATS) MARSHALL, who left us 13 years ago July 25, 1942. Remembrance is a golden chain. Death tries to break, but all in vain. The Marshall Family.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery. In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations. Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place. And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing. All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body. This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

$1,000,000 Gate Shapes Up For Moore-Maricano

NEW YORK (ANP) — Archie Moore was right! Fans want to see him in the ring with Rocky Marciano. So much so that the International Boxing club reports estimates for ringside tickets are pouring in at an unprecedented rate.

President Jim Norris had said that he expected the fight to do a $750,000 gate, but this early rush for duets is letting the prediction to a million.

At the same time, Archie has said he wants this fight on TV in the homes of millions who have supported bouts before—and not on a closed TV circuit, as the IBC's brain department insists.

Whether it is a blackout in and around New York, as is the custom with championship bouts, from early indications, the fight will be the biggest draw New York has seen since the Sugar Ray Robinson-Randy Turpin bout.

And boxing circles regard that one as the biggest drawing cards in recent ring history.

It is undecided whether Moore will set up training camp at Atlantic City or in Asbury Park.

but Marciano already has gone to his spot in the Catskills for preliminary work. Odds on the fight once at 12 to 5, have now gone to 3 to 1 with Moore the underdog. That doesn't phase Moore. He's still the cocky challenger who thinks he can whip the champ. And after his decisive kayo of middleweight champion Bobo Olson, his stock soared and the public began getting behind Archie.

Althea Gibson Retains New York State Tennis Title

PELHAM MANOR, N. Y. (ANP) —Althea Gibson retained her New York state tennis championship last week when she defeated June Kroeger of Louisville.

Using a drop shot and driving to the corners from her forehand, Miss Gibson kept Miss Kroeger on the run.

The Kentuckian made her best showing in the second set when she played even to 2-all. Miss Gibson took the next three games, lost one and then clinched the title.

The same afternoon, playing a doubles match, Miss Gibson and Ira Cover of Ramsey, N. J., defeated Miss Kroeger and Miss Isabel Trocote, the Eastern champion.

Ernie Banks Not Bothered By Cubs' Ailments

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — What ever ails the Chicago Cubs these days certainly hasn't caught up with shortstop Ernie Banks.

Banks, who only recently established a new National League record for homers by a shortstop, cut loose with his third grand slam home run of the season last week. Still Chicago lost to St. Louis, 12-11.

Ernie blasted his 26th homer of the season in the second game which was stopped in the fifth inning in a tie, according to the Pennsylvania baseball curfew. The game will be resumed where it was cut off.

"I go for Luckies
...they taste
better to me!"

Baseball's greatest catcher is a Lucky smoker. "I go for Luckies," says Roy Campanella, "because Luckies taste better to me. That's the way I feel—and that's why I smoke Luckies."

It's easy to understand why Luckies taste better. First of all, Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then that tobacco is toasted. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better... cleaner, fresher, smoother. Next time it's light-up time, enjoy better taste yourself. Light up a Lucky!

"IT'S TOASTED"
to taste better!

ROY CAMPANELLA, twice named Most Valuable Player in the National League, has made more home runs (41), batted in more runs (142), and made more putouts (785) in a season than any other catcher. His heavy hitting has sparked the Dodgers again this year.

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER—Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother!
